HOME, AUTO LOANS TO BE MORE EXPENSIVE

As projected by most experts, RBI on Wednesday increased the repo rate, the rate at which the central bank lends money to banks, by 25 bps

The move will make loans — including housing and auto — and corporate credit expensive

This is the sixth straight increase in interest rates since May last year, and the cumulative hike now totals 250 bps

After the latest hike, the benchmark repurchase or repo rate stands at 6.5%

The regulator has kept the door open for more hikes as core inflation remains high | P12

Quake toll tops 11,700; one from B'luru missing

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

AN Indian employee of a company in Bengaluru, who was on a business trip to Turkiye, has been missing ever since a predawn earthquake struck the country and neighbouring Syria on Monday and left over 11,700 people dead.

"One Indian who was on a business trip to Turkiye is missing. We hope to get some information on him. There were 3,000 Indians in Turkiye and all of them are safe. Around 10 are stuck in different parts of the country due to break down of services but they are all in a safe zone. Our mission in Ankara has set up a help desk. Until now, around 75 people have reached out for information,'' said Sanjay Verma, Secretary (West) at the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA).

In all, 65 nations have sent teams for relief and rescue in Turkiye. The MEA has deployed two Turkish speaking officers and four other personnel who are working with Turkish authorities. Around 250 Indians are on the ground helping in relief, which includes women. Besides, 130 tonnes of relief supplies have already been sent to Turkiye.

As for Syria, one relief aircraft has been sent there. Sanctions don't apply during disasters, so India has sent relief to Damascus. "We follow the G20 mantra of one earth, one family. This is no time for geo strategies. If Syria is in crisis we will help, sanctions don't cover such challenges,'' Verma added. P19

2004-2014 a lost decade: PM Modi

Says the UPA era was mired in corruption and scandals, deflects Rahul's questions on Adani

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

A day after Congress leader Rahul Gandhi raised questions on the links between industrialist Gautam Adani and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the PM lit into the Congress, calling the UPA era 'a lost decade' mired in corruption and missed opportunities.

Now a decisive government led by the BJP has brought political stability to the country, Modi said in his reply to the debate on the Motion of Thanks to the President's address in the Lok Sabha on Wednesday.

In his two-hour speech, the PM lashed out at the Congress-led UPA government from 2004-2014 for the monumental mistakes it made. "Congress turned every opportunity into a crisis. From 2004-2014, it's a lost decade for India but 2022 is India's decade," he said.

Calling out the UPA regime's failures, he said: "When there was a boom in technology, they were caught up in the 2G scam. When the nuclear deal was underway, they were caught in a cash-for-votes scandal. Terrorist attacks happened during the UPA rule. India's voice was weak at the global level at that point in time."

Without making any references to the charges made by Rahul on his proximity to Adani, Modi invoked his connection with people. "Some people work for a family, but Modi works for the nation. Trust in Modi was not built through newspaper headlines or TV. I have given my life for the people of the country," he said.

Taking a swipe at the Opposition, Modi said central law enforcement agencies have brought them together. "I thought poll results would bring them together, but it didn't happen. They should thank the ED that it has brought them together," he said.

In his fierce counter to Rahul, who suggested that the Harvard University should conduct a study on the link between politics and business houses, the PM said it is ironic as Harvard has already done a study on the Congress decline.

BALLARI HORROR

Stray dogs attack 20 people, four admitted to ICU

KIRAN BALANNANAVAR @ Ballari

BARELY two months after two children were fatally bitten by a rabies-infected dog in Ballari, a pack of stray dogs went on the rampage and attacked 20 people at three different locations in the city. Four of the victims have been admitted to the ICU ward in Vijayanagara Institute of Medical Science (VIMS). Among the 20 victims, seven are children.

According to local residents, the dogs had symptoms of rabies, but corporation officials have denied it.

Manujath Nayak, who was bitten by a dog, said three dogs, including one which had rabies symptoms, attacked the people all of a sudden. "The incident was reported in ward number 30 in Vattappagere area," he said. "Recently, one rabies-infected dog was found roaming in our area. We alerted city municipal corporation officials, but they did not pay heed. Now, we are suffering due to inaction by authorities," he added.

Nikita, founder of Humane World for Animal, Ballari, said stray dog bite cases have become common in Ballari city. P7

Reminder for CM: Make bus travel free for women

AKNISREE KARTHIK @Bengaluru

AS the countdown begins for the State Budget, the chorus for free travel for women in Bangalore Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) buses is increasing.

Transport activists pointed out that states like Punjab, Delhi and Tamil Nadu are offering free travel for women and felt that this move will bring in a social change. They also added that free travel should not be looked at as a freebie, but as a step that will usher in social change granting greater independence to women.

RUN-UP TO BUDGET 2023-24

Shaheena Shasa, member of Bengaluru Bus Prayanikara Vedike, a bus commuters' rights forum, said, "We have been demanding that the state government provide free bus travel for women in Bengaluru. Punjab, Tamil Nadu and Delhi are doing so. Tamil Nadu was the recent state to introduce it and a survey by the State Planning Commission has revealed that women are able to save more than Rs 800-1,000 every month and increased the share of women passengers."

She pointed out that Bengaluru has the most expensive ticket fares in the country. "This is a policy that will impact lakhs of women. They can travel without depending on others. This will enable greater independence and access to more opportunities," she said.

Offering free travel to women in BMTC is nothing, but an investment in social change. Women will get the freedom to pursue whatever they wish. They can go to college and get into the workforce. They will feel emancipated, said Shreya Gadepalli, mobility expert.

She also said the state government should support the BMTC in rolling out such schemes so that the bus corporation is not overburdened financially. "Otherwise the transport corporation will struggle to provide quality service," she said.

"We see many women who work as daily wagers earning around Rs 200-300 every day and spending more than one-fifth of their income on bus travel. If women are offered free travel, they can invest the money on providing better food and education," she added.

A top BMTC official said the bus corporation is already financially overburdened and added that if the state government can reimburse the free ticket fare, then it shouldn't be any problem in offering free rides to women across the city.

Feeling hot? Summer to come early

'Huge quantities of cement, steel pumped into city for construction has led to more heat'

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

THE city is getting hot and there are indications of an early summer this year. On Wednesday, the maximum temperature was 31.1 degrees Celsius and minimum 18.1 degrees Celsius.

There could be an early summer and it would peak during April. Despite these conditions, the temperature will be just one degree Celsius above normal, said Indian Meteorological Director A Prasad.

"The summer will start from the third week of February. The city may experience humid conditions due to urbanisation." he said.

India Meteorological Department (IMD) officials said the record maximum temperature for the city was 39.2 degrees Celsius registered on April 24 2016 which shattered a 85-year-old record of 38.3 degrees Celsius on April 30 1931.

"Normally, the city sees cool conditions during February. But Bengaluru has been affected due to the changing weather pattern," said well-known environmentalist Dr Yellappa Reddy.

"Huge quantities of cement and steel being pumped into the city every day for the construction of high-rise buildings has led to more heat. Also, increased suspended particulate matter in air is causing humid conditions and leading to breathing difficulties. Earlier, there were more trees and greenery which trapped particulate matter keeping the city cool. But things have changed because of rapid urbanisation," he said.

By February 15, there will be further rise in temperature. The summer is witnessing a little higher temperature for the last few years, and this year too, we are expecting a similar trend

Temp to soar, but rain a blessing: Weatherman

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

EVEN as the temperature has begun to soar in the first week of February itself, it is likely to further go up this summer, say experts. On a positive note though, good rain during the monsoon watered lakes and other water bodies, increasing soil moisture, which will in turn help keep the atmosphere cool.

As per weather experts, just in the last week of January, the state witnessed average maximum temperature in the range of 27-28 degrees Celsius, which has now risen up to a recorded 31 degrees Celsius.

Speaking to TNIE, Commissioner to Karnataka Disaster Management Authority, Manoj Rajan, said that just a few days ago, there was a cold wave in North India, whose impact was felt in the South too, including in Karnataka, leading to the chill. Now, the weather has normalised and we are facing temperature rise. Further, the commissioner explained that a trough above Sri Lanka is also responsible for the heat now.

Experts from the Karnataka State Natural Disaster Management Centre and the IMD informed that the summer will notice high temperatures, which may even touch 40 degrees Celsius in some regions. The temperature has already started increasing, and by February 15, there will be further rise in temperature.

"The summer is witnessing a little higher temperature for the last few years, and this year too, we are expecting a similar trend. But there will be no heat wave," IMD sources said.

Similarly, KSNDMC sources said that Karnataka witnessed heavy rain during the monsoon —1,009mm, as against the norm of 839 mm. Interestingly, for the last couple of years, Karnataka is receiving good rain that has filled up most water bodies, in turn helping recharge the underground water table and keeping soil moisture content high. Heavy monsoon rain is also expected to reduce drinking water woes this summer, as there is sufficient water in the reservoirs. Also, power generation will not be affected for the same reason.

PROTEST MODE

BBMP staff on strike, offices may be shut

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH employees of the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) set to hold a protest against the state government seeking fulfilment of various demands, all Palike offices are likely to be closed on Thursday.

The BBMP Employees' Welfare Association had earlier warned the government of stopping work and staging a protest if their demands are not met.

A Amrutraj, president of the association, said, "Petitions were submitted to the Chief Minister, Additional Chief Secretary of the Urban Development Department and the BBMP Chief Commissioner. But so far, none of the demands have bee n fulfilled. BBMP employees are deprived of administrative and medical facilities. Due to the deputation of special commissioners and deputy commissioners in the administration department, there has been a problem in the corporation's work. Permanent officers should be appointed immediately in the interest of the administration," he said.

Air Asia to move to KIA T2 from Feb 15

Bengaluru: Air Asia will shift all its domestic operations to Terminal 2 of Kempegowda International Airport from February 15, the airline said in a tweet. "A new flying experience awaits you as we move to our new home in Namma Bengaluru," it tweeted. Among the cities to which Air Asia operates from Bengaluru are Chennai, Delhi, Hyderabad, Kolkata and Mumbai. The new terminal was launched on January 15 and Star Air is the only airline to start operations from there since then. ENS

BBMP clears 250 illegal shops near Jayanagar complex

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike carried out an encroachment removal drive near the Jayagar Commercial Complex in South zone on Wednesday and cleared around 250 temporary shops built illegally along foothpaths, parking areas and market corridors.

According to Palike officials, the drive was taken up following directions from BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath. The Palike Chief Engineer (South zone) supervised the drive in the presence of the police and BBMP marshals.

BBMP workers clear illegal shops near the Jayanagar Complex on Wednesday

"Around 250 temporary stalls, which were encroaching on the setback areas and corridors of the Jayanagar Commercial Complex and footpaths were removed," said an official.

However, human rights activists have termed the encroachment removal drive as illegal and an injustice to poor street vendors. "As per the rules, a notice should be served first, but that was not done. Besides, the vendors have got their ID cards. The Palike officials damaged the structures and seized push carts and other items. We rushed to the spot and the process was halted. Now we have come to the South Zone office and will not leave the spot until justice is rendered to the poor vendors," said Vinay Sreenivasa an activist.

Flyers left in bind as Air Asia repeatedly reschedules flights

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AN Air Asia India flight from Bengaluru to Bhubaneswar departed 5 hours and 40 minutes late on Tuesday putting passengers to much inconvenience. Flight No IS 1455, scheduled to leave at 4.35 pm, finally departed from the Bengaluru airport at 10.15 pm.

Passengers were repeatedly given incorrect information about the departure time, said a flyer. "A middle aged passenger told me the flight was postponed four times and he will request a full refund of the ticket money," she told TNIE.

Passengers wait to board their flight at Kempegowda Internation Airport

Another passenger said she got a message that the flight had been postponed, the flyer. "She told me she landed at the airport at the rescheduled time only to be told that it was postponed yet again. It was dinner time by then and many of us were unprepared. We are senor citizens and the airline does not seem to understand some of the challenges associated with our health," she quoted the flyer as telling her.

The official handle responded on Twitter that the flight was delayed due to operational reasons. An Air Asia representative did not reply to a query in this connection.

Missing pilot

After boarding was completed for an Indigo flight (6E 5204) from Bengaluru to Mumbai on Monday night, people realised that the pilot had not yet got on board the plane. Deepak tweeted, "Departure time 11 pm, boarding completed but pilot is missing. No information by crew member when pilot will come. Majak bana ke rakh diya hai." He added in a second tweet: It is 11.40 pm, no updates. This is a kind of torture to all passengers and if somebody will get angry, you will ban him.

Another passenger Mahesh Bhagtani tweeted: "Horrible. Disgusting. No announcement, no update. Indigo's twitter handle said unanticipated schedule changes become inevitable. Our team is working hard to expedite the departure." Indigo did not respond even after a day to queries sent by this reporter.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

09TH February: A sweet, sensitive Moon indicates that many of us will be making idealistic and optimistic resolutions for the next twelve months. The rest of us may just be confused. But, then, today doesn't really have much astrological significance, so we can always wait for tomorrow!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There are signs that your romantic hopes could be inhibited by what family members say, do or think. You may even be unconsciously held back by past memories and recollections. If money matters loom, be very cautious indeed about making new commitments.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your mood should lighten during the day, and hopefully you will become considerably more confident. You may even find that a mystery, perhaps quite a small one, will be cleared up to your satisfaction. It will be pleasant when the pieces of a very old jigsaw finally fall into place.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
There is much to be said for keeping yourself to yourself this afternoon and evening. Don't be unduly perplexed or alarmed by suspicions that someone is out to do you down. You may safeguard your interests by being as sincere and honest as possible.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You should feel pleased with yourself for coping so admirably with many plans and proposals over the last few weeks, as even one or two setbacks haven't marred your general progress. Your task now is to take command by virtue of your emotional power. There'll be moments when you may be irresistible.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Nobody can blame you if you haven't been entirely straight with the facts. The point is that not everything is clear, and much of that is due to other people's reticence in coming forward. In any case, romantic secrets can be fun; how about getting in touch with an old friend?

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You may turn your attention to travel plans and vacation arrangements, and also check out legal questions to make sure that you are on the ball. A family member, far away, may be trying to get in touch. It might help if you took the initiative.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The new professional situation indicates that it's who you know that counts, not what you know. When achieving any major ambition, you should therefore exploit any and every personal contact to the full. But do so with good-will and your typical generosity of spirit.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
One lesson you could learn today is to sympathise with other people's feelings. This is something you are quite good at anyway, but now you will have to bend over backwards to see their point of view. Actually, loved ones' ideas may be much more logical than they seem at first sight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
So much water has passed under the bridge that you may find it difficult to remember the good times from long ago. As it happens, it's a fine moment to repay debts from the past, including debts of gratitude. Plus, this is a day for companionship rather than raw passion.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You ought to be aware that this is a crucial moment for personal relationships, and that you must now say what is on your mind. Even if partners' responses are not exactly what you want, they will be sympathetic. And that's a start! Who knows? They might eventually offer you their full support.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The passage of significant planets through sensitive reaches of your horoscope is a remarkable indication that now is the moment to achieve family happiness. But is such a thing truly possible? Perhaps not, but at least you can try. The worst you can do is fail, but you might just succeed!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
If you have any important ideas to discuss or proposals to put, there are clear indications that morning is difficult but afternoon easy. The way to succeed romantically is to be as spontaneous as possible. Other people may be charmed by your mischievous manner.

UPA Lokayukta Justice KN Phaneendra initiated suo motu proceedings against Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospital authorities over the alleged inconvenience caused to patients and their attendants, as the hospital has become a "darkroom" for the past two days without power supply.

Referring to a media report that a woman and her newborn were shifted to Vani Vilas Hospital on Sunday since there was no power supply to Bowring Hospital — which was restored after two days — Justice Phaneendra observed that any dereliction of duty in providing effective and quality health care would not only result in denial of the right to life and liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution, but also amounts to maladministration within the meaning of Section 2 (10) of the Karnataka Lokayukta Act.

Initiating proceedings based on the newspaper report, Justice Phaneendra directed the registry to issue notice to the medical superintendent, chief medical officer and resident medical officer, and sought an explanation from them on or before February 21, 2023.

He also directed them to take immediate steps to restore power supply, and see that such circumstances do not recur, for the benefit of patients.

The Upa Lokayukta directed the director of the hospital, now called Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical College and Research Institution, to submit a report on the steps taken to redress grievances, names and designations of officials responsible for the delay in restoring power supply, and action, if any, taken against the erring officials.

Directing the Lokayukta DySP to inspect the hospital and submit an interim report, the Upa Lokayukta asked the officer to communicate the order to the medical education minister, principal secretary of the medical education department, and commissioner of health and family welfare services, for necessary action.

K'taka uses up vax stock before expiry

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka health department managed to successfully utilise maximum stock of Covid vaccines in the past 10-15 days, available in all government hospitals.

A stock of 4.3 lakh doses of Covaxin and Covishield were yet to be utilised till January 29, of which 1.1 lakh Covaxin doses were to expire by January 31, and 3.2 lakh Covishield doses were to expire by February 9.

Dr Rajini, deputy director (immunisation) said, "We managed to use the entire stock of Covaxin in Karnataka by January 31, without wastage. As on Wednesday, 26,290 Covid vaccine doses remained to be administered to the people." She hoped for the remaining doses to also be utilised by the end of the day, to ensure no expired vaccine stock was left at the hospitals.

Of the remaining 26,290 doses of Covishield vaccines, only 1,230 doses remained in Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) hospitals in the city on Wednesday.

Special Commissioner Dr KV Thrilok Chandra said they had successfully managed to utilise the entire Covaxin stock, and expected to finish the remaining Covishield stock as well in Bengaluru.

Since the entire vaccine stock in Karnataka will expire on Thursday, officials said new vaccine stock will only be procured according to demand in public and private hospitals.

Dr Rajini said that despite people being hesitant about taking the third dose, they managed to create awareness by organising multiple vaccine melas and exhausting maximum stock. They prioritised vaccination of elderly and bedridden people in hospitals, and made efforts to vaccinate them, besides other citizens, she added.

The Total Positivity Rate in Karnataka has remained consistently low (under 0.5%) and hence, doctors have said there is no need to worry about a surge in Covid cases in the state. As on February 6, only 25 new active cases were found in Karnataka.

Namma Clinics are BJP's campaign centres: AAP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) in Karnataka has claimed that the newly inaugurated Namma Clinics in Bengaluru are nothing but political campaign centres displaying Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) banners. The clinics are not facilitated to provide proper medical facilities, they added.

AAP state president Prithvi Reddy said, "Namma Clinics started by the BJP are nothing but propaganda centres which are only playing with the feelings of patients in the city, and not providing proper medical facilities to them."

During a press conference on Wednesday, Reddy said post the inaugural in Bengaluru, their team visited several clinics to check their working conditions. They only found banners of BJP leaders, not a fully equipped clinic.

He also compared Karnataka's Namma Clinics with the Mohalla Clinics set up in Delhi. Reddy said around 500 clinics were opened in the capital city, while Karnataka is a much bigger state but the government has planned to launch only 438 clinics. He said the number is too small to cater to the state's population.

Namma Clinic in Kengeri opens its doors to the public | VINOD KUMAR.T

The funds allocated for running a single clinic are also meagre, he said. The Aam Aadmi clinic running in Bengaluru requires Rs 8-10 lakh a month, so the allocated Rs 36 lakh to run one Namma Clinic for the entire year is very less, Reddy explained. The funds will not suffice to provide free medical treatment, as promised by the government, he added.

The party suggested a proper three-tiered medical system be put in place to provide better healthcare facilities to people. In case a patient at a Namma Clinic requires further treatment, the medical centre at the next level is not equipped for it, Reddy said.

CM: Cabinet decided to name S'mogga airport after BSY

CM Basavaraj Bommai lays the foundation stone for a 108-ft tall Linga in Shivamogga on Wednesday

Proposal to be sent to Centre; Facility will be inaugurated by PM Modi on February 27

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

THE Cabinet has decided to name the Shivamogga airport after former chief minister and senior Bhratiya Janata Party (BJP) leader BS Yeddyurappa and the proposal will be forwarded to the Centre for clearance, said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, here on Wednesday.

Laying foundation stones for various development works, he said it was because of the efforts of Yediyurappa that the airport has been constructed in just 18 months. Once the airport becomes operational, it will give a boost to education, industries, tourism and economy in the region. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate it on February 27, he said.

Shivamogga is one of the fastest growing cities in the state because of the collaborative effort of Yediyurappa and former minister KS Eshwarappa, he said.

On problems being faced by evacuees of the Sharavathi project, he said the government will find a permanent solution. The district administration is conducting a survey and the report will be sent to the central government, he added.

"BJP will not make it a political issue, while opposition parties have, though they could not find a solution to the problem. Our double engine government will definitely give justice to the evacuees," he said.

The Union Government has sanctioned Rs 500 crore to develop a new rail route connecting Shivamogga, Shikaripura and Ranebennur. Modi will lay the foundation stone for the project, while also declaring 2023 as the Year of Millets during his visit to the city on February 27, he added.

Earlier, Yediyurappa said former Legislative Council Chairman DH Shankarmurthy, Eshwarappa and Member of Parliament BY Raghavendra have been working together for the development of the city and the district.

Eshwarappa lauded Bommai for sanctioning funds for various development projects, including the construction of a 108-foot-tall Eshwara Linga on top of Ragigudda, turning it into a picnic spot.

Meanwhile, CM Bommai inaugurated various completed development works of Rs 1,000 crore. He distributed title deeds to slum dwellers of seven slums in the city. He also handed over completed 288 Ashraya houses

CM says committed to reviving VISL, DKS vows to save MPM too

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Wednesday said that he will hold a meeting with private investors in a week to discuss the issue of reviving the Visvesvaraya Iron and Steel Ltd (VISL) in Bhadravathi.

Meanwhile, KPCC president DK Shivakumar said in Bhadravathi that VISL and Mysore Paper Mills (MPM) will be revived if Congress comes to power.

Bommai met a delegation of VISL workers and assured them of reviving the steel plant. He said that many PSUs are being shut down owing to globalisation but VISL survived thanks to the efforts of former chief minister BS Yediyurappa.

"The Union Government has decided to close VISL as part of its divestment plan. It has caused concern. There is a demand for iron ore extracted from Karnataka. JSW Steel has grown massively and hence we will try our best to save VISL from closure. Later, we will hold a meeting with private steel manufacturers to invest in VISL," he said.

Earlier, speaking to reporters, Bommai said that after the meeting with steel manufacturers, a proposal will be sent to the Centre to restart VISL. He also said that there is no need to do politics over the matter.

Meanwhile, Shivakumar said that VISL and Mysore Paper Mills will restart operations when the Congress comes to power.

"The BJP government is not allowing farmers and labourers to live peacefully. When Siddaramaiah was CM, he sanctioned a captive iron ore mine for VISL to save it," he said. Prior to that, a delegation of VISL labourers met Shivakumar.

Shivakumar gets ED summons, daughter issued CBI notice

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

KPCC president DK Shivakumar on Wednesday said that the Enforcement Directorate (ED) has issued him a notice to appear before it on February 22 and the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has issued a notice to his daughter Aishwarya.

Shivakumar, who was in Bhadravathi to take part in the Congress' Praja Dhwani Ytara, told reporters that the Central agencies are serving him notices almost every day.

"CBI has served a notice to my daughter. The CBI has asked her whether she paid the college fee and passed the examination. CBI has also asked if the fee is paid... then how much has been paid. What can I say? When they are asking for details of fees paid to schools and colleges, just imagine what sort of questions they ask," the Kanakapura MLA said.

Shivakumar said that in the past, he appeared before the ED in connection with the National Herald case. "Again, the ED has served me a notice. What to do? I am thinking, should I conduct Praja Dhwani Yatra or keep appearing before the ED? The agencies target only the Opposition parties and are silent on the Ruling party even if they indulge in embezzlement of thousands of crores of rupees," he added.

The ED is investigating two cases against Shivakumar. While the one case is related to the National Herald corruption case, the CBI is investigating a case of disproportionate assets against him. He appeared before the ED in October and November 2022.

Shivakumar in September alleged that in the midst of the Bharat Jodo Yatra and the Assembly session, ED issued a summons to him. Shivakumar had said he was ready to cooperate but the timing of the summon and the harassment he was put through, was coming in the way of discharging his Constitutional and political duties. The cases pursued by the CBI and the ED were followed by income tax raids carried out in 2017 when he hosted Congress MLAs from Gujarat ahead of Rajya Sabha polls.

HDK SAYS GOWDA MADE HEGDE, A BRAHMIN, CM

'HDK frustrated as surveys not in favour of JDS'

Bengaluru: Revenue Minister R Ashoka on Wednesday hit out at JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy over his recent remarks on Brahmins saying that the latter was frustrated as no recent survey predicted a win for the regional party in the Assembly elections. "All the surveys have predicted not more than 20 seats for the JDS. With the Lingayats moving away from the JDS, Kumaraswamy has been making a futile attempt to win over them. He is indulging in vote bank politics. Like Britishers, Kumaraswamy is trying to divide the society," he said, adding that the JDS leader should apologise to the people of Karnataka and Union Minister Pralhad Joshi. Ashoka asserted that the BJP will field a strong candidate in Ramanagara where Kumaraswamy's son Nikhil is likely to contest. ENS

UNDER attack for his alleged anti-Brahmin remarks, former CM and JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy claimed on Wednesday that his statement was not against any community. Speaking after offering puja at Mahabaleshwar Temple at Gokarna in Uttara Kannada district, Kumaraswamy said, "We are the protectors of Hindu religion. It was HD Deve Gowda who made Ramakrishna Hegde (a Brahmin) a CM. What are people who came to power in the name of Hindutva doing? I granted them land for the Brahman Community hall when I was the CM. I constituted the Brahmin Development Authority," he said.

Kumaraswamy received flak from various quarters for his alleged remarks when he reportedly said, "RSS is thinking of making Pralhad Joshi the next CM after the elections. And the reason for that is, Joshi is not from the Brahmin community that belongs to South Karnataka. He belongs to the sect that broke the statues of God in Sringeri Mutt".

Meanwhile, Congress MP from Bengluru Rural MP DK Suresh condemned the alleged remarks of HDK against Brahmins. Addressing a Congress workers' rally at Holenarasipur in Hassan, he said that cutting across caste and party lines, any MLA can become the CM if he or she has the majority. Despite being aware of this, JDS leader's remarks have hurt sentiments of a particular community.

Govt, Foxconn talk investment plans in K'taka

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Wednesday said Foxconn's potential investment in Karnataka would be a testament to Karnataka's industrial landscape. "We are working towards building the best electronics and manufacturing ecosystems, which will attract further investments in the sector. We welcome Foxconn to Karnataka and wish them the best of luck," the CM tweeted.

On Wednesday, delegation from the Government of Karnataka led by Commissioner for Industrial Development and Director of Industries Gunjan Krishna and Kedarnath Mudda, Senior Advisor to Chief Minister of Karnataka met Young Liu, chairman, at the headquarters of Hon Hai Technology Group (Foxconn).

Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani said with Foxconn's potential investment, the state is gearing up to be the top state in the country to attract many other global electronics companies

"We would like to extend our full support to Foxconn and are thrilled that they are considering Karnataka as a potential investment destination. Our investment-friendly policies and processes will further facilitate them to grow in the state," said Gunjan Krishna, Commissioner for Industrial Development and Director, Department of Industries and Commerce.

Foxconn is the world's largest electronics manufacturer.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Ministry of Defence is organising a 'CEOs Round Table' on Monday, the inaugural day of Aero India 2023, under the chairmanship of Defence Minister Rajnath Singh.

The Round Table will see participation from officials, delegates and global CEOs from 26 countries, including global investors such as Boeing, Lockheed, Israel Aerospace Industries, General Atomics, Liebherr Group, Raytheon Technologies, Safran, General Authority of Military Industries (GAMI), etc., while domestic PSUs like HAL, BEL, Bharat Dynamics Limited (BDL), BEML Limited, Mishra Dhatu Nigam Limited will also take part. Besides, premier private defence and aerospace manufacturing companies from India are also likely to be part of the Round Table.

The platform, themed 'Sky is not the limit: opportunities beyond boundaries', is expected to lay the foundation of a more robust interaction between the industry partners and the government, and is also expected to increase 'Ease of doing business' in India and provide a favourable platform to original equipment manufacturers in India. Further, this would engage industries for co-development and co-production to make India a commercial manufacturing hub and base for global product support, an official release stated.

Greener fuels could power tomorrow's transport

HRITHIK KIRAN BAGADE

THE Indian auto sector is enthusiastically chanting the 'green transition mantra', even as the country progresses on the path of realising its net zero targets by 2070. Narrating the transformation story of the country's transport sector, Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (SIAM) Executive Director PK Banerjee said, "Even amidst global disruptions today, India is no longer isolated. We are sticking to our sustainability commitments and pushing decarbonisation -- where we will transition across the adoption of electric mobility, biofuels, CNG, LNG and hydrogen-based transportation -- while looking to generate a circular economy."

The industry is bullish on ethanol-based mobility, among other green solutions, driven by 'Atmanirbharta'. "Industry must adopt, align and adapt. Ethanol is expected to be well received in the two-wheeler and passenger vehicle segments, while CNG is a big draw among three-wheeler and bus segments. The Centre is clear about its vision -- to have 10,000 gas stations across 110 cities by 2030," said Bannerjee.

At the India Energy Week, Reliance Industries and Ashok Leyland unveiled India's first Hydrogen Internal Combustion Engine-powered heavy-duty truck. The Ashok Leyland H2-ICE heavy-duty truck range (19-35 tonne), while powered by clean and renewable hydrogen, still maintains the architecture akin to a conventional diesel-based combustion engine-run truck, helping quicker migration to cleaner energy sources at a relatively lower cost delta.

"Working with RIL, we have demonstrated our commitment to the Clean Mobility Mission. We want to continue our path to innovate and leverage new technologies and be a leader in sustainable and environment-friendly mobility. Our aim is to make India's alternative fuel segment self-reliant," mentioned Ashok Leyland president and Chief Technology Officer Dr N Saravanan.

It's not just Original Equipment Manufacturers alone, but other stakeholders too that are robustly powering the alternative fuel wave. Integral among them are the Oil Marketing Companies, which are working on the needed fuel innovations, which were exhibited at the event.

"We are working on creating alternative fuels for mobility solutions. Currently, we are in the process of blending ethanol in diesel, to which we introduce an in-house derived additive, to stabilise the blend, thus helping us develop an alternative fuel. We are currently running pilots on trucks with Ashok Leyland, and the results are encouraging," Bharat Petroleum Corporation Manager (R&D) Rahul Garg told TNIE, adding that the solution could be rolled out for passenger vehicles in due course.

First Environment Working Group meet from today

LAND degradation, loss of biodiversity, lack of waste absorption and issues associated with resource extraction and others are the key issues that will be discussed at the first Environment and Climate Sustainability Working Group (ECSWG) meeting as part of the G20 summit that will be held in Bengaluru from February 9-11. It will discuss the most pressing issues of global environment and climate change and come out with a participatory approach to address the same, Richa Sharma, Additional Secretary, Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change told reporters here on Wednesday.

G20 countries account for more than 85% of the global GDP but they are also responsible for 80% of annual greenhouse gas emissions, she said. The meeting is expected to evolve a consensus and policy coordination on the steps to be taken to tackle this, said Richa.

The ability of the Earth to sustain itself would be impacted if the resource extraction is done unabatedly without utilizing end-of-life material, she said. "Ocean warming, sea-level rise and ocean acidification threaten half of the global GDP of 44 trillion Dollars. Issues of biodiversity loss and how to conserve them will be a big part of the discussions," she said. "The issue of sustainable lifestyle for the environment and climate change will be the cross-cutting themes. We do not look at land degradation, climate change and biodiversity conservation in silos and that is why different ministries will be brought under one platform to discuss and address issues," she said.

ECSWG is one of the 13 working groups under the Sherpa track and will meet four times between February and May.

HALT MAHADAYI PROJECT: FORUMS TO CENTRE

Delegation urges Governor P S Sreedharan Pillai to resolve the issue of water sharing with Karnataka, in favour of Goa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

APART from the Goa government, several political parties and organisations continue to exert pressure on the Centre in an attempt to halt the diversion of the Mahadayi river water to Karnataka, in wake of the approval given to the Kalasa-Banduri DPR by the Centre.

In a fresh attempt, a Save Mahadayi, Save Goa Front delegation met Goa Governor P S Sreedharan Pillai in Goa on Wednesday, seeking his urgent intervention in the Mahadayi imbroglio.

A delegation of Save Mahadayi Save Goa Front appealed to the Goa Governor to help bring a solution to the issue of sharing Mahadayi waters with Karnataka and requested him to find a lasting solution to the issue in favour of Goa state.

"We had passed some resolutions in our last public meeting on January 16. We have submitted the copy of resolutions to the Governor and have urged him to convey the same to the President. The Front members also had a detailed chat on the issue of Mahadayi on what the state government can do or the Centre can intervene in the matter," said Prashant Naik of the Front.

After meeting the Governor, the delegation also submitted a memorandum and a copy of the unanimous resolution passed on Opinion Poll Day with thousands of signatures asking for immediate withdrawal of DPR approved to divert Mahadayi.

According to sources, the Governor took note of the Front's views on the issue and said he would take up the matter with the authorities concerned and convey the sentiments of Goans to them. Another member of the Front, Prajal Sakhardande said that in all villages across Goa, meetings will be conducted to involve people in the ongoing Mahadayi movement. A related case filed by the Mahadayi Bachao Abhiyan before the Supreme Court is on a strong footing, and now there is a need to strengthen the people's movement in the state so as to ensure that the water from Mahadayi continues to flow into Goa, said Sakhardande. Advocate Hrudaynath Shirodkar said that there are several things that could be improved in the approvals granted by the Central government to Karnataka's DPR. He also said that the Karnataka government has wrongly claimed that the project is a drinking water project while it is, in fact, an irrigation project.

'Study ill-effects of river diversion'

ENS @ Belagavi

OPPOSITION to the possible diversion of Mahadayi river water is building up stronger in Goa as a House Committee comprising MLAs of both the ruling and opposition parties in Goa demanded that the government appoint environmentalists of national repute to study the ill-effects of the project. At a House Committee meeting on Wednesday in Goa, the legislators also demanded that a report drawn up after the study by such environmentalists should be submitted to the Supreme Court to bolster the Mahadayi case in Goa's favour.

Sources said quoting House Committee chairman Subhash Shirodkar that "the House Committee on the Mahadayi water diversion would appoint consultants and experts to submit reports on the ill effects of the project if executed by Karnataka within the next 20 days."

Shirodkar, also Water Resources Minister of Goa, said his government had been fighting the Mahadayi battle at the administrative level. He said he also apprised Union Minister for Jal Shakti Gajendra Singh Shekhawat about the consequences of diversion of Mahadayi waters. He said the project would affect the UNESCO-listed Western Ghats and also destroy six wildlife sanctuaries.

Minor drugged, gang-raped by six neighbours

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

A 16-year-old girl was confined in a room, drugged and gang-raped for four hours by six youths on Tuesday night. The crime was reported from Kandikal Gate in Chatrinaka police station limits. The accused are the neighbours of the survivor.

The shocking incident came to light on Wednesday. The six suspects, who were reportedly high on psychotropic drugs, are said to have played music on very high volume to prevent any noise from leaving the room.

According to sources, the survivor was out to buy medicines, when she was lured by a female friend, who is also a minor, to the room where the suspects were waiting.

The friend promised the survivor that she would take the latter to a shop where medicines were cheaper. Falaknuma ACP Jahangir, who is investigating the case, said that all the six men, aged between 18 and 21 years, have been taken into custody. The minor girl who helped the accused in trapping the victim has been sent to a juvenile home.

The accused allegedly raped the minor multiple times, before fleeing. The survivor who gained consciousness on Wednesday reached her home and narrated her ordeal to her parents, who approached the Chatrinaka police.

Four, including two children, die in Cuddalore inferno

BAGALAVAN PERIER B @ Cuddalore

IN a suspected suicide attempt fuelled by a domestic dispute, four people, including a woman and two children, died in a blaze in Cuddalore on Wednesday. Two more women are undergoing treatment with severe burn injuries. Police said one of the victims, G Sarguru (33), may have attempted suicide during a quarrel with his wife and the fire may have spread to other family members.

According to Cuddalore Old Town police sources, S Danalakshmi (25) of Devanampattinam had quarrel with her husband Sarguru of Chidambaram and she was staying in her mother's house for the past five months with her eight-month-old son S Rakshan. On Wednesday, she went to her sister P Tamilarasi's (27) house at Chellankuppam in Cuddalore district with her mother M Selvi (50). Sarguru came there and an argument broke out between them. After some time, neighbours heard voices crying for help and they rushed to the house. "We found the family members burning inside a gated lane that separated Tamilarasi's and her neighbour's house. The gate to the passage was locked from inside," a neighbour said. Personnel from Cuddalore OT police station rushed to the spot. "Before we could rescue them, Tamilarasi, her four-month-old child P Hasini, and Rakshan died," police sources said. "We sent the injured Danalakshmi, Selvi and Sarguru to Government General Hospital in Cuddalore for treatment," police said. Sarguru later died in the hospital.

"Since all the three were admitted in serious condition, we couldn't get statements from any of them," a senior police official said. We suspect Sarguru may have attempted suicide by dousing himself with petrol to threaten his wife. The fuel may have spilled on to others and all of them may have caught fire when he tried to set himself ablaze, sources said. Police also said a firewood stove found near the spot may have also triggered the blaze. Nothing could be conclusively established as the victims sustained more than 80% burn injuries and are not in a position to give statements, police said.

Police source said Danalakshmi fell in love with Sarguru while she was working in a private hospital in Cuddalore a few years ago. "They got married one-and-a-half-years ago and soon quarrel broke out between them over Sarguru's alleged illicit affair. Danalakshmi left Sarguru and came to stay with her mother. Sarguru asked his wife to give him divorce, but she refused. The couple had frequent arguments over this and they were fighting on Wednesday too before the tragedy," police sources said.

"SINCE the last six months, Animal Birth Control (ABC) and Anti Rabies Vaccine (ARV) programmes have been completely stopped. This is one of the reasons for the increase in the number of stray dogs. Number of rabies-infected dogs is also going up," Nikita said.

Rudresh, commissioner, Ballari City Municipal Corporation said that he visited VIMS and enquired with the injured persons. "To control the increasing number of stray dogs in Ballari city, we have decided to launch a Rs 3.09 crore programme and have set a target of carrying out 15,000 sterilisations in a year," he said.

Moneylender stabbed to death in B'luru

ENS @ Bengaluru

A 29-year-old moneylender was stabbed to death by two bike-borne men in Banaswadi police station limits. The victim has been identified as Shekhar, a resident of Chikkabanaswadi. The incident happened around 12.30 am near his residence.

Police said the main accused, Manoj, had borrowed few lakhs of rupees from Shekhar and delayed returning it. Shekhar, who was under the influence of alcohol, picked a fight with the accused which led to a heated argument resulting in his murder. The incident took place when the victim was returning home on his bike. The two accused followed him on another two-wheeler and killed him.

After seeing the victim lying in a pool of blood, some passersby reported the matter to the police, who have registered a case of murder and are investigating.

HC quashes notice to bank on atrocity plaint by former manager

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court quashed the notice issued by the Directorate of Civil Rights Enforcement (DCRE) to Canara Bank and its official, based on a complaint of atrocity filed by its former official for taking disciplinary action against him, with relation to irregularities committed by him.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order while allowing the petition filed by Canara Bank and its general manager R Girees Kumar, human resources wing, questioning the notice dated December 4, 2020, issued to them by the DCRE, based on a complaint filed by Chandrakant Munavalli, then manager incharge of Kidwai Memorial Institute of Oncology branch.

"On a prismatic analysis of the facts and acts of Munavalli, what unmistakably emerges is that Munavalli has abused and misused every jurisdiction, and sought to initiate proceedings against officers of the bank for having passed orders in accordance with the law, or for having challenged orders passed by the authorities who had no jurisdiction before court," the court said.

The court noted that there cannot be a better illustration of abuse of power by DCRE as the notice reads about allegations of the year 2013, that officers of the bank indulged in certain acts of atrocity against Munavalli. In the light of the court's finding in a criminal petition filed in 2021, that the very registration of crime alleging offences punishable under the SC/ST Act were all false, the impugned notice cannot be a better illustration of such abuse of the process of law, the court added.

Munavalli had allegedly taken illegal gratification from the customer in the advances portfolio of the Branch, which was captured on CCTV.

IISc-Samsung to work on semiconductor research

ENS @ Bengaluru

IISc will collaborate with Samsung Semiconductor India Research to boost research and development in the semiconductor industry in India. In particular, IISc and SSIR will work together on promoting research and development in protecting semiconductor chips against Electrostatic Discharge (ESD). ESD is the transfer of electrostatic charge between two bodies. It has become a growing issue in the semiconductor industry as a major cause of destruction for the chips.

According to IISc, the partnership will help develop solutions, especially to protect 'ultra-high-speed serial interfaces' in advanced Integrated Circuits (ICs) and system-on-chip (SoC) products. "ICs and SoCs are essential for practically any system, from small to big, that we see around us, but they are very sensitive to ESD failures, especially those developed using advanced nanoscale CMOS (Complementary Metal Oxide Semiconductor) technologies. The majority of IC chip failures and field returns are attributed to ESD failures," IISc said.

"We have been collaborating extensively with semiconductor industries worldwide on advanced nanoelectronics technologies, including solutions to ESD reliability threats to advanced SoCs. We have carried out both fundamental and applied research on ESD protection devices, with a strong emphasis on creating practical solutions for the semiconductor industry in a range of technology nodes," said Prof Mayank Shrivastava, professor at the IISc Department of Electronic Systems Engineering.

BIFFES-2023 IN MARCH: OVER 300 MOVIES TO REGALE FILM BUFFS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE 14th edition of the prestigious Bengaluru International Film Festival (Biffes) 2023 which is scheduled to be held from March 23 to March 30 in Bengaluru will host the screening of 300 movies of different languages from 50 to 55 countries across the world. The 8-day long festival will also provide a platform for the exchange of the latest technological trends and developments in the field of movie-making.

Briefing the media on Wednesday, Revenue Minister and chairman of the organising committee R Ashoka said that a celebrity male and a female actor from Bollywood will be invited for the inaugural event. He said the theme for Biffes-2023 is yet to be decided.

The prize money in each category has been hiked from Rs 3 lakh to Rs 5 lakh for the first prize, and Rs 2 lakh and Rs 1 lakh for the second and third prizes will be increased accordingly, he said.

Competitions will be held in Cinema of the World, Asian Cinema, Indian Cinema and Kannada Cinema categories. The movies will be screened on 11 screens at Orion Mall on Dr Rajkumar Road in Rajajinagar. "Another feature of Biffes is the digital entry of movies. The selection committee has been directed to be cautious while appointing the juries, to avoid confusion," he clarified.

The festival also has the objective of promoting Brand Bengaluru and make Kannada films transcend the state's borders. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will inaugurate Biffes-2023 on the grand steps of Vidhana Soudha. The CM had released the logo for the event 'gandaberunda', the mythological two-headed bird, on Tuesday.

Karnataka Chalanachitra Academy (KCA) chairman Ashok Kashyap, CM's principal secretary Manjunath Prasad, director Rajendra Singh Babu and others were present at the press conference. The government has allocated a budget of Rs 4.49 crore for organising Biffes-2023. It was Rs 6 crore in 2017-18, Rs 5 cr (2018-19), Rs 4 cr (2019-20), Rs 3 cr (2021) and Rs 4.33 cr in 2022-23.

RBI WARY OF CORE INFLATION DESPITE EASING SIGNALS

The RBI's inflation hawks are in no hurry to retreat. Markets expected the central bank to either take the foot off the rate hike pedal or change the policy stance to neutral. Wednesday's bi-monthly policy review delivered neither. Further, as market expectations went one way, RBI walked another. Far from considering a pause, Governor Shaktikanta Das even kept the door open for another rate hike. This was least expected. Headline inflation is easing, which even the RBI's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) acknowledged and duly lowered the forecasts for Q4 of the current fiscal, full fiscal FY23 and even for FY24. Yet, Das is unwilling to take his eyes off the inflation ball. Unlike global central banks, he even refused to provide forward guidance, terming it counterproductive.

The RBI seems adamant for two reasons. One, core inflation, excluding food and fuel prices, remains sticky. As Deputy Governor Michael Patra noted, core inflation indicates excess demand, and although it's moderating, the decline isn't at a pace the RBI would like it to be. So future rate hikes or pauses will depend on how this component evolves from here on. Two, the most important, is the uncertainty surrounding the global macro economy. The past three years saw successive shocks, each with 'unprecedented suddenness and spillovers', from which major economies are yet to recover. Having weathered the non-stop storms, the MPC may want to avoid a premature pivot. This may well turn out to be RBI's prescient call, but then, luck can run both ways.

The 250 bps rate hikes announced till now are arriving in slow motion, as they often do. But one can touch and feel its full impact only from next year. By this point, the economy would have recouped the lost ground. For now, the RBI has occupied the front row of the growth cheer squad, revising forecasts upwards to 7% this fiscal and 6.4% next. This is higher than even the Ministry of Finance, which stuck to conservatism. Barring exports being a drag on the economy and unexpected global shocks, the India growth story seems unstoppable. But with the overnight repo rate at 6.5% and taking the December inflation print of 5.7%, the real policy rate has moved into positive territory at 0.8%. Some believe that further rate hikes pose an unwarranted risk to growth unless inflationary pressures re-emerge. The MPC should take note of it.

DON'T DERAIL CIVIC INFRA WORK FOR OPTICS' SAKE

The news is disturbing that the Centre's grant to Kerala worth around ₹700 crore under the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT) project will lapse by March 31, 2023. Most projects under the scheme are sewage and septage treatment plants across the state. Local bodies failed to complete the projects on time mainly due to the belligerent stand from residents, who have some genuine concerns about the projects. But instead of allaying fears and making the people understand the importance of modern facilities, the opposition parties often use the discontent as a tool to put the government on the defensive and reap political benefits. It is quite natural for the residents to view sewage or septage treatment plants in their midst with suspicion and fear. Their initial response will be that of anger and distrust. As proved by many successful projects implemented in the state, public rage will vanish once they enjoy the real benefits of the projects.

It is high time that the opposition parties discarded the ritualistic practice of opposing every project brought up by the government without looking into the merits. They must realise that the opposition, too, has a responsibility in a democratic system. There is nothing wrong with amplifying the affected people's voices and addressing their genuine concerns. But the opposition should refrain from piggy-riding on the emotional outbursts of the public and using them to checkmate the government. The example of the Muttathara sewage treatment plant in Thiruvananthapuram is an edifying experience for the entire state. There were huge protests from the local community against setting up the plant, but everything subsided after the plant became operational. A team of MLAs, including those from the opposition, visited the plant recently and expressed satisfaction with the functioning of the project.

Such cooperation is expected from the opposition for the competition of the remaining treatment plants. Unfortunately, they have not stopped fanning the protests against the proposed plants at Kothi and Avikkal Thodu in Kozhikode. Succumbing to local pressure, the United Democratic Front is still supporting the agitation, which is triggered mainly by misunderstandings. The government, too, should walk the extra mile to take the people into confidence instead of branding the agitators as 'terrorists' and 'urban naxals'.

QUICK TAKE

VOID CHILD MARRIAGES

The Assam government arresting thousands in its anti-child marriage drive raises critical questions. The law prohibiting and criminalising these marriages should also void them. But they are only voidable. Such instances are low because wives hesitate to pursue annulment or divorce due to socio-economic insecurities. Many wives currently demanding the release of their husbands pose a dilemma for the Assam government. And fearing arrests, terrified families won't take pregnant minors to clinics, losing out on welfare benefits and endangering their health. Also, booking those marrying girls below 14 under Pocso Act which deals explicitly with sexual assault cases, is strange.

The people's new-found fury is no longer aimed at just the political class but increasingly, the all-powerful Army

THE BEGGING BOWL SYNDROME AND PAKISTAN

NEENA GOPAL

Foreign policy analyst and author

SOURAV ROY

Pakistan, caught in a debt trap amid spiraling inflation, owes its mentors Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates a huge debt of gratitude as the Middle East powerhouses stepped in with a timely loan waiver to stave off what would otherwise have been an inevitable slide into anarchy.

An International Monetary Fund team holding talks with Pakistan remains reluctant to release the $1.1 billion of the $6 billion package signed in 2019, with the visiting IMF team unconvinced that Pakistan will make the required structural changes to raise revenue.

This leaves Pakistan not just in a fiscal chokehold, but in an internal political churn. Pakistan PM Shehbaz Sharif's coalition government must pull the economy back from the brink, but any belt-tightening will invite a backlash when he seeks a fresh mandate to rule later this year.

Adding to Sharif's angst is former PM Imran Khan's unrelenting tirade over his "unelected" status, after the popular cricketer-turned-politician upped the ante over the Pakistan Army-engineered "constitutional coup" that removed him from office.

Adding to the challenge is the far more potent threat, from the breakaway Jamaat-ul-Ahrar faction of the Tehreek-e-Taliban, which unleashed a suicide bomber on Peshawar's security forces killing a 100 policemen, reinforcing fears of the growing vulnerability of the military-intelligence establishment to the 'nursery of terror' that it has nurtured from within.

While Saudi Arabia and the UAE will unleash their firepower to subdue an Islamic Spring in Pakistan, the Gulf monarchies' fiscal bailout do come with caveats. As Saudi Finance Minister Mohammed Al-Jadaan said at Davos in a not-so-veiled message to Islamabad: "We are becoming more creative in ways to support Pakistan, aligning with multilateral institutions to enable reforms and financial help."

Clearly, this 'begging bowl' comes with strings. The IMF bailout is primarily aimed at meeting external debt repayments, with a 16% depletion of the country's foreign currency reserves, reducing the fund to $3 billion in the last week of January. A sum barely enough to pay for imports for the next three weeks as food reserves hit an all-time low. Container ships carrying imports are lined up at Karachi Port. But the government is unable to pay.

Privately run garment manufacturers, construction companies and the Sialkot sports hub are hobbled by the government snapping their line of credit, already under strain over forced power shutdowns. The recent countrywide power breakdown after the national grid collapsed plunged the nation of nearly 243 million people, its schools, hospitals and emergency services, and industry into darkness. Remittances have steadily shrunk as the educated elite park money in tax havens abroad.

After the 2022 floods, Pakistan's agricultural mainstay is at risk, with millions of hectares of agricultural land in its food bowl, the Punjab, wiped out. Damages were pegged at $40 billion.

The IMF had granted a $6.6 billion loan in 2013 when Nawaz Sharif served as prime minister, but lagging on a promised broadening of the tax base and privatisation of state-owned companies, Imran Khan who secured a fresh bailout in 2019, allowed the loan schedule to go off course. The IMF stepped in with a $1 billion loan after the floods, but scrapped payments in November over the lack of fiscal consolidation. The IMF negotiating team, deaf to Pakistan's pleas, only arrived in January for talks that Shehbaz has already described as "hugely disturbing".

The required financial infusion of $1 billion that Pakistan seeks from the IMF to ease the financial crisis and stop defaults on its external debt repayments of $8 billion that must be paid by June requires Islamabad to introduce tougher measures.

During talks with the IMF, Finance Minister Ishaq Dar cited his government's hike of petrol, electricity and gas prices, the introduction of market-based exchange rate for local currency and additional taxes to contain the fiscal deficit as part of its fiscal prudence initiative. Both Sui Northern Gas Pipeline Ltd and Sui Southern Gas Company hiked natural gas rates by up to 75%.

While China's silence is intriguing, newfound patron Russia—if President Vladimir Putin can be called that—has stepped in to alleviate the fuel crunch. Under Russia's 'Look at Asia' policy, Moscow offered a discount of 10–15% on crude oil prices. The two nations are now exploring a flagship $3 billion Pakistan Stream Gas Pipeline Project that will provide crude oil and LNG, with prices dependent on the amount of crude Pakistan imports.

Sharif, aware of the rising popular anger against his Pakistan Democratic Movement coalition government, has called for an all-party meet as part of a strategy to get other parties, Imran's Tehreek-e-Insaf in particular, to share responsibility—and the blame. Sharif, intent on bringing in an interim government of technocrats to take the tough measures, has shifted the blame to Imran for the wrecked economy he inherited, citing the cricketer's delay in approaching the IMF while pandering to the gallery by saying he wants to break away from the 'begging bowl' even as he introduced a slew of unsustainable welfare schemes that pushed the fiscal deficit up to $25.3 billion.

The people's new-found fury, however, is no longer aimed at just the political class, drawn from the landed gentry that perpetuates the continued serfdom of its impoverished landless labour but increasingly, the all-powerful Army. The entity that co-opts a major chunk of the country's resources, giving itself the lion's share of lucrative real estate and US funds, positioning itself as the last moderate Islamic bulwark in a region roiled by the rivalry between the Sunni Gulf and Shia Iran, while turning a blind eye to the deep, systemic problems that plague Pakistan.

Many of the young, educated elite—who return with degrees from Stanford and Harvard to a country starved of jobs—believe it is time Pakistan revisited the India success story, by encouraging the growth of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs), grant Most Favoured Nation status to its giant neighbour, open lucrative trade routes across the crossroads of Asia and as one insider said, replicate India's hugely successful Silicon Valley experiment by gaining the US' IT industry's trust to become its back office.

And with that, finally end the 'begging bowl' syndrome that bedevils Pakistan.

GULLIBLE INVESTORS AND THE MARKET SHARKS

KAJAL BASU

Veteran journalist

A couple of weeks ago, a functionary of a private bank came to my house to help me set up a poor person's zero-balance account (but, then, inveigled me into settling for something flashier). In the course of things, he attempted to get me to invest in stocks. I said, absolutely never. He argued that his manager had just made ₹3 lakh over a year. I remained, to his chagrin, negatively adamant. Stupid Luddite. His spiel had sounded good, except that a few days ago, a friend, who invests a lot and diversely and wisely, told me that he had been mortified by a loss of ₹3 lakh—over two days.

It's not that the market has been especially affected by the Adani Group fiasco in the wake of the Hindenburg éxposé. It steamed ahead even as Adani stocks took a clobbering, and it lost ground even as the Adani stocks regained territory after eight straight sessions of a hammering.

And therein lies the story of how the ordinary retail investor is a pawn in the hands of the seasoned players, the institutions, the sharks, and, yes, the state. The latter has mandated itself to guarantee the inviolability of the stock market, which is defined by unresting, comfortless volatility, as much as that of that other white whale, GDP.

Studies have shown that 95% of investors, both retail and traders, lose money in the markets. 70% of traders—who, by definition, know how to play the market—don't last beyond the first year, and 95% stop trading by the third year.

Not only does no other capitalist institution have this level of attrition, but it would also wreck any other institution. It would, indeed, permanently ruin the very idea of it in the human mind, which is always in search of stability and serenity.

But, of course, stock markets are not about providing long-term liveable incomes to people (much less enriching them): they are about enriching corporates, investment advisers, brokers, and a tiny homuncular handful of those players who make a daily job of intraday trading.

"In the stock market," wrote Alexander Hurst in The Guardian, "it takes money to make money. So what do you do when you don't have very much to begin with? You pour what little you have into overtly leveraged, rarely brilliant, sometimes inane trades that lie somewhere in between gambling and investing."

So, in every sense, this isn't about people—even professionals and experienced vocationers—making money. It is about the extended ability of an inequitable institution to survive the law of entropy unscathed despite a history of bad delivery to the vast majority of investors. Bourses go on, despite the high body count, mostly riding a high churn: disappointed or impoverished or just cautious investors who leave are replaced by newcomers who've smelt blood. Most of them, finding, in the fullness of time, their own blood spilt on the trading floor, will retreat, cannier but traumatised and much diminished. Society is crisscrossed by these wounded, the lateral moraine of an indifferent stock market juggernaut.

> The stock market requires a constant scrutiny through checks-and-balances by institutions dedicated single-mindedly to what is a formidable, toilsome task

The stock market requires a constant scrutiny through checks-and-balances by institutions dedicated single-mindedly to what is a formidable, toilsome task. India has several, with contiguous responsibilities. But each one failed wretchedly to warn investors of the impending disaster of the Adani Group wipeout, built on the self-evaluatory diddling of numerics and laws. It isn't as if Indian economists and institutional stock marketers have not known for years that the Adani Group is a vastly overvalued house of cards—and that a house of cards, even one built with only Aces, will, eventually, collapse at the merest hint of a puff. The group's gargantuan overleveraging and fantasyland overvaluation was even written about, obliquely in the mainstream media and directly on social media. But the institutions responsible for overseeing the market, which is, all over the world, inclined and habituated to duplicitous manipulation, failed—for reasons as much political as corruptional—to flag this for the benefit of the general public that is, even now, itching to break through the earnings bottleneck of the Covid times.

This was, in every sense, a disaster waiting to happen in the deliberately laxly regulated roiling sea of stocks. It was not only inevitable and ineludible but also seen to be coming in all its Titanic vastness. And, yet, investors were hung out to dry; in the absence of a word to the wise, much less a duty-bound injunction from the regulators and market mavens, they had neither time nor opportunity to escape from the shipwreck.

Nathan Anderson, the short-seller behind the Hindenburg Research éxposé that laid low the house of Adani, knows the underbelly of the market because he makes a handsome living attacking it. He told the New Yorker last year that the market "has just become this otherworldly casino, which is disconnected from the real world".

Although stock marketers have been known to vehemently disagree, it is hardly an unfamiliar refrain. One of the most famous cautions of the noted Panamanian American Wall Street journalist-author Edwin Lefèvre goes: "Fortunes are made and lost by thousands of men in the stock market; they are made and kept by a few dozen." These words are most often quoted, ironically enough, by tone-deaf stockbrokers in spasms of self-congratulatory smugness—because he also wrote this: "There are many thousands of people who buy and sell stocks speculatively but the number of those who speculate profitably is small."

And, yet, among inveterate stock-players, there are defenders of the Adani Group's diddling with the stocks and excoriators of Hindenburg galore. According to them, Hindenburg's perfidy, and not the Adani Group's tortiousness, is responsible for the ongoing investor meltdown.

But here's the thing: investors are making losses not because someone pressed the panic button but because someone didn't—and because investors ignored the plentiful microtremors presaging something seriously wrong in pursuit of fantasy riches.

The International Monetary Fund has put many stringent conditions to lend money, which Pakistan will find difficult to satisfy. Sri Lanka was also in a similar or even worst state, but other nations (including India) and international organisations came to its rescue. However, Pakistan cannot expect relations with India to improve so long as it harps on the issue of Jammu and Kashmir.

WHATEVER you give a woman, she will make it greater, said Kiran Bedi, former Lieutenant Governor of Puducherry, while presenting the 23rd edition of the Devi Awards, organised by The New Indian Express, to 12 distinguished women in Chennai on Wednesday.

Bedi referred to British writer William Golding's well-known quote, "I think women are foolish to pretend they are equal to men. They are far superior and always have been. Whatever you give a woman, she will make it greater. If you give her sperm, she will give you a baby. If you give her a house, she will give you a home. If you give her groceries, she will give you a meal. If you give her a smile, she will give you her heart. She multiplies and enlarges whatever is given to her."

Adding to this, she said, "If you give a woman the internet, she creates an enterprise, and (if) you give me an NCC uniform when I was only 14 years old, I converted it into an IPS uniform."

She said that every woman who awakens courage with humility is a Durga, every woman who awakens transformation in herself is a Kali, devotion is a Parvathi, nourishing within herself is a Annapoorna, every woman's friend is a Shakthi, and therefore every woman is a Devi.

Welcoming the gathering, TNIE CEO Lakshmi Menon noted that this was the fourth time the Devi Awards were being held in Chennai. The Devi Awards recognise and celebrate exceptional women who display dynamism and innovation in their work. This year's edition was sponsored by the Adani Group, Vellore Institute of Technology, and Ahujasons. The Awards were instituted in December 2014, with the first edition being conducted in New Delhi. Since then, more than 200 remarkable women from across the country have been recognised with the Devi Awards.

The first to be presented the award on Wednesday, historian and environmentalist Dr Nanditha Krishna, told the gathering that hard work had played a key role in her 45-year journey, and family support is also crucial.

One of the other awardees, Carnatic vocalist Vidya Subramanian, also shared how her husband had sowed in her the entrepreneurial dream. Visahaka Hari, a practitioner of Hari Katha, performed an excerpt of a Carnatic song praising the goddess Devi.

Another awardee Dr P Poorna Chandrika, former director of the Institute of Mental Health, explained how the public had started acknowledging the importance of mental heath after the pandemic.

Uproar over PM's jacket, Kharge's scarf

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @New Delhi

AMID disruptions and heated debates, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge remained at the centre of attractions of MPs for a non-political reason during the Budget session on Wednesday. As the session commenced, the prime minister arrived at the Parliament and sat in the Upper House. But what drew the attention of members towards the PM was his blue jacket, made from recycled plastic bottles.

"The moment the PM came, his blue jacket got our attention. With this the PM, indeed, showed his concerns on environment," said a BJP Rajya Sabha MP, who wished not to be named. On the other hand, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge also drew the attention of the MPs of the saffron party with his witty remarks. Kharge was also spotted donning a scarf from the high-fashion brand Louis Vuitton – said to be priced at around ₹56,332.

Both the PM's blue jacket and Kharge's scarf emerged as a new talking point, albeit for a short time, in the Parliament. The moment the blue jacket of Modi flashed across microblogging sites, the BJP started talking about Kharge's expensive scarf on Twitter and other social media platforms.

Taking a swipe at Kharge, the BJP spokesperson Shehzad Poonawalla wrote on Twitter: "Taste Apna Apna, Message Apna Apna. PM@narendramodi sends a 'green message' with his sustainable fashion-blue jacket; enlisting Jan Bhagidari for the cause of sustainable growth & environment. Meanwhile, Kharge ji sports an expensive LV scarf (not making any judgment)."

The BJP had also derided Rahul Gandhi recently for wearing a white t-shirt in winter during his Bharat Jodi Yatra. It was said that the t-shirt the Congress leader wore was priced at ₹41,000. In retaliation, the Congress had also taken a swipe at the PM Narendra Modi saying that his suit costs ₹10 lakh.

Sources said that the jacket worn by the PM was gifted by the Indian Oil Corporation at the Indian Energy Week that was recently held in Bengaluru. The jacket is made of recycled PET bottles and the same kind of jackets is also in plan to be made available to Indian Oil employees and armed forces.

Parts of Rahul's speech expunged, Adani row continues to rock House

PREETHA NAIR @New Delhi

AS Lok Sabha witnessed uproarious scenes on Wednesday over the Hindenburg short-seller report, some portions of the speech made by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi were expunged from the records of the Lower House because it was not substantiated with proof.

In a scathing attack against the BJP government on Tuesday, Gandhi questioned the relationship between the BJP government and Adani, while accusing the government of tweaking rules for the group.

The expunged remarks also include Gandhi's allegations regarding the Mumbai airport, wherein he had said the airport takeover by the Adani Group was facilitated through the Enforcement Directorate.

Some of the remarks were expunged by Speaker Om Birla invoking the rule on the need to authenticate the allegations made in Parliament. Responding to it, Congress spokesperson Jairam Ramesh said that democracy is being cremated in the Lok Sabha. Along with Rahul's remarks, TMC MP Mahua Moitra's 'offensive words were also expunged from records. However, defending her stand, Moitra said that she did not use the 'word' on record. Moitra used the 'objectionable word' at Delhi BJP MP Ramesh Bidhuri, who interrupted her speech several times in Lok Sabha on Tuesday.

During the debate on the Motion of Thanks on President's address, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi demanded action against Rahul Gandhi for the 'objectionable and baseless allegations and that his speech should be expunged from records. Joshi said that a privilege motion will be moved against Gandhi for his comments.

Promotion of formula milk at cost of women & babies' health: Lancet

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

FORMULA milk manufacturers have come out with a highly effective marketing playbook to increase sales at the expense of the rights, health and welfare of people, the 2023 Lancet series on breastfeeding said.

The series emphasised the formula milk industries' economic and political influence as well as the inadequacies of public policies that hinder millions of women from nursing.

"The CMF (commercial milk formula) industry deploys a sophisticated and highly effective marketing playbook to turn the care and concern of parents and caregivers into a business opportunity," the report said. "Policies must remove structural barriers, and society must fully enable and support women to breastfeed."

The series said the consumption of commercial milk formula has been normalised and more children are consuming it than ever before. "Only 48% of the world's infants and young children are breastfed as recommended, despite the huge body of evidence on the lifelong benefits of breastfeeding," it added. "This situation reflects the stranglehold the CMF industry has on governments, health professionals, academic institutions, and increasingly on caregivers and families through pervasive social media."

The Indian government has enacted the Infant Milk Substitutes Feeding Bottles and Infant Foods Act 1992 to control marketing of baby foods. However, companies aggressively promote products in India, Dr Arun Gupta, central coordinator, Breastfeeding Promotion Network Of India, said.

SC to omit 'foreign origin' in verdict on Sikkimese

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Wednesday agreed to remove the remark in its ruling which indicated that the Nepali community settled in Sikkim are of "foreign origin".

The remark was made in the judgment in "Association of Old Settlers of Sikkim vs Union of India" by Justice B V Nagarathna wherein she while narrating the historical evolution of the modern-day Indian state of Sikkim vis-a-vis the development of its income tax regime, noted, "There was no difference made out between the original inhabitants of Sikkim, namely, the Bhutia-Lepchas and the persons of foreign origin settled in Sikkim like the Nepalis or persons of Indian origin who had settled down in Sikkim generations back."

Collegium recommends appointments of CJs of Patna, HP, Gauhati & Tripura

The Supreme Court collegium headed by Chief Justice of India D Y Chandrachud has recommended the appointment of the chief justices of the high courts of Patna, Himachal Pradesh, Gauhati and Tripura. The collegium has appointed Justice K Vinod Chandran of the Kerala High Court for the Chief Justice of Patna High Court and Justice Sabina as the Chief Justice of Himachal Pradesh High Court. The collegium has also recommended Justice Sandeep Mehta as the Chief Justice of the Gauhati High Court and Justice Apresh Kumar Singh's name as the Chief Justice of the High Court of Tripura.

The applications were filed seeking the removal of the foreigner tag from Sikkimese of Nepalese origin from the order dated January 13. Senior advocate Sanjay Hegde along with advocate on record Anas Tanwir appeared for petitioners Bharat Basnett and RB Subba. The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) had also filed a petition in Supreme Court for rectification of the court's observation on Sikkimese Nepalis.

A bench of Justices MR Shah and BV Nagarathna while agreeing to remove the said observation in their order said, "MA has been filed seeking corrections as if error has occurred from the point of the court. However, having heard the parties, we think it is just and proper to correct certain words used in paragraph 10A and 68.8 in my judgment by making the following corrections." The remarks had resulted in protests in Sikkim.

Rename Lucknow as Lakshmanpur, demands BJP in UP

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE politics around renaming of districts, including state capital Lucknow has picked up yet again when both the deputy Chief Ministers of UP – Keshav Prasad Maurya and Brajesh Pathak — on Wednesday backed the demand of BJP MP from Pratapgarh, Sangam Lal Gupta seeking the authorities to rename Lucknow as Lakshmanpur. Even senior BJP leader Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi has also extended support to the demand of the BJP MP.

BJP's Pratapgarh MP had written a letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi requesting him to get Lucknow renamed as "Lakhanpur or Lakshmanpur", claiming that the city was given its current name in the 18th century by Nawab Asifuddaula. While Deputy CM Keshav Maurya claimed that historically Lucknow was known as Lakhanpuri which became Lucknow with the passage of time, the other Deputy CM Brajesh Pathak repeated the same argument in Bhadohi on Wednesday requested the state government to move forward to rename it.

The Pratapgarh MP had claimed in his letter that Lord Ram had gifted Lucknow to his brother Lakshman and it was known as 'Lakhanpur' or 'Lakshmanpur'. Meanwhile, OP Rajbhar-led Suheldev Bhartiya Samaj Party (SBSP), the former ally of the BJP, re-sent the letter to CM Yogi Adityanath demanding renaming of Ghazipur and Bahraich after Maharshi Vishwamitra and Raja Suheldev, respectively.

Districts show the way in investment

Over ₹11L crore investment proposals in UP, with Gautam Buddha Nagar topping the list

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

IN order to give a push to the economy and emerge as a robust growth engine in the country, the Uttar Pradesh government has reached out to local investors at the district level, organising investors' summits across the state for the first time. The initiative has so far fetched investment proposals of over ₹11 lakh crore from the districts.

The initiative was prompted by the response from the first investors' summit in Barabanki district, adjoining Lucknow, in the run-up to the Global Investors' Summit 2023. The idea of mobilising entrepreneurs at the local level involves connecting all 75 districts with the main event in Lucknow through video links on February 10-12.

Early last month, the district magistrates were directed to organise the summits in their respective districts. During the events, agenda for each district was shared with the potential local investors. As part of the exercise, senior officials at the level of additional chief secretary, principal secretary and secretaries were instructed to meet the prominent investors and resolve their issues.

"From Shahjahanpur, Shamli and Barabanki to Badaun and Azamgarh, local entrepreneurs across the state exhibited great enthusiasm over the innovative idea of district-level meets and the changed scenario," a senior state government official said.

Gautam Buddha Nagar industrial department signed investment proposals worth ₹5,87,000 crore, with investors interested in setting up units in Noida and Greater Noida under the jurisdiction of the Yamuna Expressway Industrial Development Authority (Yeida). Ghaziabad, the second district in the National Capital Region, has signed agreements worth ₹92,000 crore.

Surprisingly, Jhansi in the Bundelkhand region, which is considered one of the backward and least industrialised parts of Uttar Pradesh, has emerged as a hot investment destination for the business community. At a one-day investors' meet in the district, Jhansi outperformed many other prominent districts like Lucknow, Varanasi and Ayodhya in terms of getting total investment. It has received 146 proposals worth ₹1,11,610.90 crore. Out of this, agreements have been signed for investment of ₹65,000 crore, including ₹50,000 crore for projects in the energy sector.

As per the senior state government officials, the investment coming through GIS-2023 is likely to generate over two crore direct and indirect employment opportunities. The most noticeable aspect of several of these proposals are that around ₹7.16 lakh crore, which makes nearly 25% of all investments, have also been coming from abroad.

Tiger Abhi Zinda Hai: Bihar min to Nitish

'Tiger Abhi Zinda Hai' (tiger is alive), commented Bihar water resources minister Sanjay Jha while summing up Nitish Kumar's busy itinerary during the ongoing 'Samadhan Yatra'. Jha's remark was music to Nitish's ears at a time when he has chalked out his plans to bring maximum number of anti-BJP parties on a single platform ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha election. Nitish has already made it clear that he would visit various states of the country for a broader opposition unity after the assembly's budget session. The question remains if Jha's remark is an indication that Nitish will not quit CM post till 2025.

Engineer opens tea stall in Bhagalpur

Deepak Yadav, a graduate from a Bengaluru based engineering college, opened his tea stall at Tilka Majhi chowk in Bhagalpur town recently. The name of his tea stall is unique and reflects Deepak's dream to become a millionaire someday. Deepak decided to try his new business after he got fed up with his repeated attempts to get a job of his choice. He returned to his native town Bhagalpur and opened a tea stall on roadside. Taking a dig at deputy chief minister Tejashwi Prasad Yadav for his promise to provide 10 lakh jobs, Deepak said, "If he would have kept his promise, why a graduate need to open a tea stall."

IT raid on JDU MLC, former jalebi seller

JD (U) MLC Radha Charan Sah, a former 'jalebi' (a spiral shaped crisp and juicy sweet) seller used to sell jalebis outside Ara railway station in the 70's until he climbed the ladders of success, building a business empire worth several crores of rupees. Later, he also became an MLC through his political connections. Income tax sleuths were surprised when they detected unaccounted wealth worth ₹80 lakh during their searches. Sah will now be questioned by the officers on his sources of income. However, no official statement came from the I-T department.

Grand alliance plans Purnia rally on Feb 25

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Patna

GRAND alliance or mahagathbandhan will organise a mega rally in Bihar's Purnia district on February 25, nearly five months after union home minister and senior BJP leader Amit Shah addressed a public meeting at the same venue.

The rally to be held in Rangbhumi maidan of district headquarters town will be attended by Chief Minister Nitish Kumar, Deputy Chief Minister Tejashwi Prasad Yadav and other senior leaders of mahagathbandhan, which comprised of seven parties.

At a joint press conference, RJD state chief Jagadanand Singh, JD(U) state president Umesh Kushwaha and Congress former state president Madan Mohan Jha said that workers of mahagathbandhan from half a dozen districts will participate in the rally.

The leaders will showcase their unity against BJP. "The Purnia rally will send a message to people who are trying to vitiate country's atmosphere by spread communal hatred for political gains," Jagadanand said.

Umesh Kushwaha said that 'jumle ki sarkar' will be ousted from power at the centre in 2024 Lok Sabha election.

Chouhan announces ₹100cr for Sant Ravidas Temple in MP poll year

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

A grand temple dedicated to Bhakti Movement saint and Dalit icon Sant Ravidas will be built in Badtuma village of Madhya Pradesh's Sagar district, the state's CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan announced on Wednesday.

"We are deciding to build a ₹100 crore grand temple here. The temple's walls will be engraved with couplets and teachings of the great saint. The personality and spiritual work of the saint will also be displayed on the same temple's premises. Further, it will house buildings for holding public events. Preparations for building the grand temple will start from now only," Chouhan said while addressing Sant Ravidas Mahakumbh.

He also announced the Mukhya Mantri Teerth-Darshan, a free pilgrimage scheme for the elderly. The train under the scheme will go from Madhya Pradesh to Varanasi, Sant Ravidas's birthplace.

The announcement is being seen as a calculated move by the BJP and its longest-serving CM to woo the 16 per cent Scheduled Caste vote in the assembly poll year in the state, particularly when the saffron party is apprehensive about its loyal OBC vote, which may not side with it strongly this time.

Shivraj Singh Chouhan, MP CM

The CM made a series of more SC-category-centric announcements, including raising the annual income limit of families from ₹6 lakh to ₹8 lakh under scholarship for SC students.

Also, Chouhan announced that 20 per cent of land in industrial areas of the state will be reserved for youths from the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (SC/ST) categories to establish their factories. In the MSME cluster policy, a cluster will be given to the SC industrialists.

RAJOURI ATTACK

Cops declare ₹10L for info on militants

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

OVER a month after militants killed seven civilians in a village in Rajouri in Jammu and Kashmir, police has said the militants are still hiding in the hills of Rajouri and announced a reward of ₹10 lakh for anyone sharing information about the militants and warned of stern action against those facilitating the militants.

"They can still carry out a terror incident again at any time. Few people are facilitating the movement and survival of these terrorists by providing them food, shelter and information about movement of security forces. Police is keeping a close watch on these elements and stern legal action will be taken against them," warned the advisory. On January 1, militants shot dead five civilians and injured a dozen others after barging in their houses in Dangri village of Rajouri and on January 2, two children were killed and half a dozen others injured in an IED explosion carried out by militants in the house of a victim.

The residents of Dangri village on Sunday staged a massive protest against failure of security agencies in tracking down the militants involved in the attack.

NDMA asks experts to re-submit survey reports on Joshimath

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

THE National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA) in a meeting has asked all the experts engaged in rehabilitation and treatment after the sinking of land in Joshimath to resubmit their reports after several contradictions were found. The meeting was held under the chairmanship of Kamal Kishore, member secretary NDMA on Tuesday.

Representatives of technical institutions participated in the meeting through video conferencing. According to sources, the contradiction is reflected in the reports of various scientific institutions. All such technical institutions have been asked to finalize the report by sharing the data of their respective surveys with each other. The Centre is also waiting to announce relief package for the Joshimath disaster victims based on this report.

All aspects will be taken forward only after getting the final report from the NDMA. The committee has given its recommendation on rehabilitation

Dr Ranjit Sinha, Disaster Management Secretary

According to sources, the NDMA has directed all the eight technical institutes involved in this work to coordinate and prepare a report within the next three to four days. The eight institutes engaged to find a solution to land-submergence are Central Building Research Institute (CBRI), Roorkee, Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology (WIHG), Dehradun, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Roorkee, National Geophysical Research Institute (NGRI), Hyderabad, National Institute of Hydrology (NIH), Roorke, among others.

According to Disaster Management Department Secretary Dr Ranjit Sinha, "All aspects will be taken forward only after getting the final report from the NDMA. The high power committee has already given its recommendation on the issue of displacement and rehabilitation, which will be placed in the cabinet meeting".

Empty granary: Punjab's wheat stock hits lowest level, crisis looms

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

PUNJAB's granaries are now almost empty. Once overflowing, the granaries have a lowest-ever stock of wheat at 16 lakh metric tonne (MT) at present and will further fall to 2 lakh MT by end of March, when the wheat procurement season begins in April.

According to sources, around 10 lakh MT is in the godowns of the state procurement agencies and the rest 6 lakh MT is with the Food Corporation of India (FCI). Usually around this time of the year, when the stocks are emptied to create space for the next season's wheat, there is a stock of 40-50 lakh MT in the state godowns.

The total wheat procured in the country was 187.86 lakh MT in 2022-23 against the last financial year's procurement of 433.44 lakh MT which is down by more than 50 per cent.

The reason wheat procurement across the country declined is due to the global wheat shortage following the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war and the extension of the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana.

In January last year, the state had an estimated 48 lakh MT of wheat stock while in 2021 it was 52 lakh MT. With the union government not releasing wheat under the Open Market Sale Scheme (OMSS), the wheat prices had touched ₹28 to 29 per kg last month and atta (flour) prices ₹35 per kg.

The wheat prices had increased by about ₹5 per kg from ₹23.50 per kg. To control the prices the government usually floats a tender in the month of September. Since the last four months and due to festive season as the demand of wheat was at an all time high across the country, the OMSS was not opened. The old wheat crop with the private traders was used which is now almost empty, thus the reason behind the skyrocketing price of wheat.

The central government opened up this scheme on January 26 till March 15 and in the first tender 2.77 lakh MT of wheat from Punjab was brought by private traders, said sources. A senior state food and supplies department official pointed out that if this tender continues, the stocks will be down to about ₹2 lakh MT.

Procurement down by 50%

- Around 10 lakh MT is in the godowns of the state procurement agencies and 6 lakh MT is with the Food Corporation of India (FCI).
- Total wheat procured in the country was 187.86 lakh MT in 2022-23 against the last financial year's procurement of 433.44 lakh MT which is down by more than 50%

REASONS FOR DECLINE

- Extension of the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana
- Global wheat shortages due to the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war
- Wheat procurement in the country

Love igloos? Gulmarg is the next destination

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Gulmarg tourist resort, which is known for its fascinating snow-covered slopes and skiing, has added the attraction of glass igloo and snow igloo cafes for the visitors this year, and a large number of tourists are visiting the tourist destination to cherish the unique and lifetime experience.

A young Kashmiri hotelier Waseem Shah, the owner of Kalahoi Green Heights in Gulmarg, has set up six fiber glass igloo cafes measuring 12 sq ft each at two places in Gulmarg.

"We took inspiration from Finnish Lapland and recreated the same glass igloo feel here. The glass igloos have been imported from Austria in consultation with our design team, who gave inputs on various factors like quality of snow, wind speeds, sunlight and temperature," Waseem added.

Waseem has built three glass Igloo domes near his hotel in the snow-covered Gulmarg and three at the first phase of the Gondola Cable car project at Kangdoori.

A large number of tourists and locals have been visiting the glass igloo daily since it was thrown open to the public on January 26. The glass igloo cafés offer the best views to the guests. "It is a unique and wonderful experience for the tourists as they can view the snowfall through the glass igloo. The ambience is very nice. This is a lifetime experience," said a tourist from Mumbai.

A glass igloo restaurant amidst the snow-covered slopes in Gulmarg has become a favourite spot for tourists | ZAHOOR PUNJABI

The glass igloo can accommodate eight people at a given time. It can have one big or two small tables to accommodate eight people.

"We are charging ₹1,000 for one igloo for 45 minutes for the guests to enjoy the ambience and view the snow," Waseem said. The glass igloo being a novel concept has become an instant hit.

"Not only tourists but locals are eager to spend some time in the glass igloo for the wonderland experience," Waseem said. Meanwhile, the snow igloo, 40 ft in height and 42 ft in width, made by Tariq Ahmed Lone in the space provided by Gulmarg Development Authority in Gulmarg is also attracting tourists. In the snow igloo, which was made in one-and-a-half months, has a sitting space for 20 people.

Describing it as the world's biggest igloo, he said they are charging an entry fee of ₹50 per head in the igloo.

A tourist from Maharashtra said it was for the first time that he was seeing a snow igloo. "The real-life Igloo is something different. It is an experience, which we will cherish for all life," he added.

Another tourist from Kolkata said that sitting, eating and taking pictures in a snow igloo is a lifetime experience. "It is beautiful and its worth is much more because it has not been made of the machine but by the hard work of humans," he added. The tourists in Gulmarg don't miss visiting the two Igloos, clicking the memorable pictures and videos from their smartphones or digital cameras.

EMIs set to rise as RBI increases rate

As cost of funds goes up for banks, they will pass on higher cost to borrowers

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

Change in EMIs on 20-yr home loan

Loan amount	EMI AT 7%	EMI AT 9.50%	Difference
₹20 Lakh	₹15,506	₹18,643	₹3,137
₹40 Lakh	₹31,012	₹37,285	₹6,273
₹50 Lakh	₹38,765	₹46,607	₹7,842
₹70 Lakh	₹54,271	₹65,249	₹10,978
₹1 Crore	₹77,530	₹93,213	₹15,683

HOME loan equated monthly instalments (EMIs) of existing borrowers are set to increase as the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), on Wednesday, hiked repo rate by 25 basis points (bps). This increase will turn personal, home, auto and other retail loans costlier for the new borrowers.

As widely expected, RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das, while unveiling the last bi-monthly monetary policy of 2022-23, announced to raise repo rate, the rate at which the RBI lends money to commercial banks, to 6.50% from 6.25% in its fight to tame inflation. As cost of funds will rise for the banks after this hike, they will pass this higher cost to borrowers.

The latest hike, sixth such hike since May 2022, in the repo rate will make home loan EMIs expensive by around 2-4%. The EMI for 20-year home loan for ₹50 lakh at 9.25% interest rate is ₹45,793. After 25 bps increase, at 9.50% interest, the new EMI will be ₹46,607, resulting in ₹814 rise in monthly outgo.

The rise in EMIs for existing home loan borrowers will be higher if consider repo rate hikes by the RBI since May last year. The central bank has increased repo rate by 250 bps in the past nine months. The EMI for 20-year home loan for ₹50 lakh at 7% interest rate was ₹38,765 whereas the new EMI at 9.50 % will be ₹46,607, reflecting an increase of ₹7,842 rise in monthly outgo. If the loan amount is ₹1 crore, then EMI will increase by ₹15,683.

On the positive side, the hike in repo rate is a good news for savers as the banks are expected to increase the interest rates on fixed deposits to attract depositors to fund the credit growth. Apart from raising repo rate, the RBI revised its projections for growth and inflation. The central bank has revised down the inflation projection to 6.5 % for 2022-23 against previous forecast of 6.7 % and expects GDP growth for 2023-24 to be 6.4% while growth for 2022-23 has been pegged at 7 %. Amid volatile global developments, the Indian economy remains resilient, said RBI Governor. "Available data for Q3 and Q4:2022-23 indicate that economic activity in India remains resilient. Urban consumption demand has been firming up, driven by a sustained recovery in discretionary spending, especially on services, such as travel, tourism and hospitality.

Excluding Wednesday's hike, the central bank has raised repo rate by 225 bps since April 2022 in a bid to tame inflation, which has stayed above its comfort zone of 2-6 percent. Headline CPI inflation has moderated by 105 basis points during November-December 2022 from its level of 6.8 percent in October 2022. "Headline inflation has moderated with negative momentum in November and December 2022, but the stickiness of core or underlying inflation is a matter of concern," said RBI Governor.

TotalEnergies puts on hold hydrogen project with Adani

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

FRENCH energy major TotalEnergies has put on hold its participation in Adani Group's $50 billion hydrogen project.

While the partnership with the Adani group on the hydrogen project was announced in June last year, TotalEnergies has not yet signed a contract, the French group's chief executive Patrick Pouyanne said at an earnings call.

As per the June 2022 announcement, TotalEnergies was to take 25% equity in Adani New Industries Ltd (ANIL), the Adani Group firm which is investing $ 50 billion over 10 years in a green hydrogen ecosystem that includes an initial production capacity of 1 million tonnes before 2030.

"Obviously, the hydrogen project will be put on hold until we have clarity," Pouyanne said. "It was announced, nothing was signed. It doesn't exist," he said, referring to the hydrogen venture. "Mr Adani has other things to deal with now, it's just good sense to pause things while the audit goes forward."

Hydrogen project will be put on hold until we have clarity. Adani has other things to deal with now, it's just good sense to pause things while the audit goes forward

Patrick Pouyanne, CEO, TotalEnergies

This announcement by TotalEnergies comes as Adani Group is facing allegations of stock price manipulation, financial fraud, and corporate governance issues among other things following the scathing report published by the US-based short-seller Hindenburg Research on January 24, 2023.

TotalEnergies, which has an exposure of $3.1 billion in the Gautam Adani-promoted Adani group, will wait for the result of an audit launched by the conglomerate in response to the allegations. Last week it had said that Adani Group would hire one of the 'big four' (Deloitte, EY, KPMG, and PwC) accounting firms to carry out a general audit.

TotalEnergies has a 37.4% stake in Adani Total Gas and 19.75% in Adani Green Energy. Shares of Adani Total Gas have fallen over 64% in past 10 trading sessions. On Wednesday, it fell 5% to hit an intraday low – also its 52-week low -- of ₹1,394. Similarly, shares of Adani Green have lost over 60% of their value during this period and hit a 52-week low of ₹801 on Wednesday. "Adani Green is still worth twice as much as we invested, Adani Gas is worth eight times more. Our accounting is healthy, there was due diligence before and due diligence after," said Pouyanne.

DIGITAL PAYMENT

RBI to launch QR code based coin vending machine

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) is preparing a pilot project on QR code-based coin vending machine (QCVM). This project will be introduced in 12 cities.

"These vending machines will dispense coins against debit to the customer's account using UPI instead of physical tendering of banknotes. This will enhance the ease of accessibility to coins," said RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das in his monetary policy address on Wednesday.

The central bank, based on the learnings from the pilot, will issue guidelines to banks to promote distribution of coins using these machines.

Also, with UPI becoming popular for retail digital payments in India, the RBI has proposed to permit all inbound travellers to India to use UPI for their merchant payments (P2M) while they are in the country. "To begin with, this facility will be extended to travellers from G-20 countries arriving at select international airports," Das said.

CA Manish P Hingar, founder at Fintoo said the proposal can be extremely beneficial as it will make it easier and more convenient for international travellers to make payments while in India, without having to carry large amounts of cash or convert their money into the local currency. UPI is a success story in India as it clocked 7,400 crore digital payments worth ₹126 lakh crore in 2022.

No lending to Adani Group on share value: RBI Guv

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

The whole perception is coming due to market capitalisation of shares of the group. Banks don't lend on the basis of market cap, but on the strength and fundamentals of companies

Shaktikanta Das, RBI Governor

RESERVE BANK OF INDIA Governor Shaktikanta Das said on Wednesday the crash in share prices of crisis-ridden Adani Group companies will not impact as banks and NBFCs don't give loans on the basis of market captialisation. They lend to companies on the basis of cash flow, project analysis and other relevant factors.

"The whole perception is coming because of the market capitalisation of shares of the group. Banks don't lend on the basis of the market cap, but on the strength and fundamentals of companies," said Das addressing a press conference in Mumbai after announcing a 25 basis points hike in repo rate.

The Governor said the central bank has taken several steps to regulate banks and minimise lending risks. "We don't discuss individual cases in public domain. Having said that, in last 3-4 years, the RBI has taken a number of steps to strengthen resilience of Indian banks. All I would like to add now is that the Indian banking sector and NBFC sector continue to remain resilient and strong," he said. "Strength and resilience of banks are much larger and stronger to be affected by an individual case. Banking system is strong," Das added.

Deputy Governor MK Jain said the exposure of Indian banks and NBFCs to Adani Group is insignificant. "Domestic banking exposure is against underlying assets not based on market cap. Exposure, as of now, is not very significant," said Jain. As per the RBI, five more banks will join the pilot on the central bank digital currency or e-rupee for retail customers and the project will be extended to nine additional cities. The RBI, which began piloting the central bank digital currency or e-rupee for retail customers in early December with eight banks in five cities, stressed that it doesn't want to rush with it but favours a slow and steady adoption.

The retail CBDC (Central Bank Digital Currency) is available for only 50,000 users now and of them 5,000 are merchants. The service is being offered on invitation basis by eight banks across five cities now, said Deputy Governor T Rabi Sankar.

Adani Enterprises rises 100% in 4 sessions, APSEZ recovers

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

SHARES of Adani Enterprises (AEL), the flagship company of Adani Group, have surged well over 100% in the past four trading sessions after hitting its 52-week low of ₹1,017 on February 3. AEL closed 20% higher on Wednesday (Feb 8) at 2,159.

Despite this four-session recovery, AEL shares are still down by over 35% when compared with January 25 share prices, the day when US-based short seller Hindenburg Research accused the Adani Group of committing financial fraud.

Adani Ports & Special Economic Zones (APSEZ) shares have also seen a big recovery in the last 4 sessions after hitting a 52-week low of ₹395 on February 3. APSEZ shares closed 8% higher on Wednesday at ₹599 but are down by about 20% when compared with January 25 prices.

The pick-up in Adani shares comes as the billionaire Gautam Adani promoted port-to-power conglomerate took some precautionary steps, including prepayment of its loans, to calm down investors' sentiments.

Adani Group's market capitalization had plummeted by close to ₹10 lakh crore between January 25 and February 5 after Hindenburg accused the Group of pulling the "largest con in corporate history" by engaging in "brazen stock manipulation and accounting fraud" over the course of two decades. The Adanis have called the Hindenburg report "maliciously mischievous and unresearched" and said it was evaluating legal action.

Shares up as Group takes measures

Pick-up in Adani shares comes as billionaire Gautam Adani promoted conglomerate took some precautionary steps, including prepayment of its loans, to calm down investors' sentiments. APSEZ shares have seen a big recovery in last 4 sessions

A positive commentary by a few financial institutions also helped the stocks after big names such as Credit Suisse and Citigroup stopped accepting Adani bonds for loans. Adani Group's earnings in the December ending quarter, however, have been mixed so far. Adani Power on Wednesday reported 96% decline in consolidated net profit at ₹8.77 crore for Q3FY23 while Adani Wilmar's net profit grew by 16% to ₹246 crore. The shares of the two firms hit their upper price band of 5% on Wednesday. In total, 7 stocks of the 10 listed group companies logged gains on Wednesday. The three firms closed in red were Adani Total Gas, Adani Green and ACC.

Central bank to issue guidelines for banks on penal charges soon

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

BANK customers will not be subjected to excessive and unreasonable penal charges levied by the lenders as the RBI will soon release the guidelines for such charges.

Banks charge penal charges on consumer loans in case of early pre-payments, minimum balances, check bounces and EMI payment delays.

"Currently, Regulated Entities (REs) are required to have a policy for levy of penal interest on advances. The REs, however, follow divergent practices on levying of such charges. In certain cases, these charges are founded to be excessive," said RBI Governor Shaktikanta Das while announcing the monetary policy. "To further enhance transparency, reasonableness and consumer protection, draft guidelines on levy of penal charges will be issued to obtain comments from stakeholders," he added. The central bank has said that any penalty imposed by regulated entities will be "reasonable & transparent" and that lenders should not use it as a revenue enhancement tool. "The supervisory reviews done by RBI have revealed that most banks use the penal rate on top of the interest rate in case of payment defaults and non-compliance of terms and conditions," Deputy Governor M Rajeshwar Rao said while addressing media persons. "The reviews indicated that there were excessive charges in some cases, so we are trying to frame guidelines to ensure a transparent and uniform approach to this issue."

Meanwhile, as part of RBI's gradual move towards normalising liquidity and market operations, the central bank has decided to restore market hours for the Government Securities market to the pre-pandemic timing of 9 am to 5 pm.

"Moreover, as part of our ongoing endeavour to further develop the government securities market, we propose to permit lending and borrowing of G-secs," Das said. This, the governor added will provide investors with an avenue to deploy their idle securities, enhance portfolio returns and facilitate wider participation.

Setting up GST tribunal to be main agenda of next meet of Council

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE government is all set to expedite the process of setting up of GST Appellate Tribunals or GSTAT in view of increasing dispute cases, a senior official said, adding that the next GST Council will take up this issue.

The Council meet was earlier scheduled for February 18, but now, as per reports, has been postponed due to the ongoing parliamentary session and finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman's other commitments. Meanwhile, taxation for tobacco and gutkha businesses and the tax treatment of online gaming, horse racing and casinos will also be on the Council's agenda list. In the previous meeting, Group of Minister's reports on these issues were put on hold until the next Council meeting.

"Several cases are stuck in high courts in the absence of GSTATs. Finance ministry has been pushing for the faster decision on GSTATs formation in the GST Council's next meeting. We want appellate tribunals in all the states for faster resolution of GST disputes," the official cited above said. Another official too echoed the same and said there is a lot of internal pressure to set up the tribunals as it's been over five years since the GST law has been implemented and many cases are pending in the litigation. Sitharaman in a recent event said the issue of higher rate of GST on cement will be referred to the fitment committee and then depending on their recommendation would be taken up in the GST Council meet. Currently, 28% GST is levied on cement, which as per experts, is a bit on the higher side as there are many non-bulk individual buyers who are unable to take input tax credit on that. "I will have the fitment committee look into it and then, if necessary, take it to the GST Council," Sitharaman said while responding to the suggestion made by an industry veteran during an event organised by the confederation of Indian industries (CII).

Zoom to reduce 15% of workforce

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

Video conferencing service Zoom is firing 15% of its workforce or about 1,300 employees.

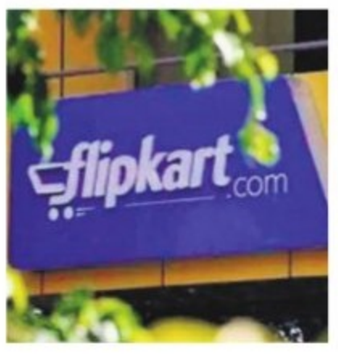
Eric S Yuan, CEO of Zoom, is reducing his salary for coming fiscal by 98% and foregoing his FY23 corporate bonus. In a blog post, he said, "If you are a US-based employee who is impacted, you will receive an email to your Zoom and personal inboxes in next 30 minutes that reads (IMPACTED)Departing Zoom: What You Need to Know. Non-US employees will be notified following local requirements." The CEO said he is accountable for these mistakes. Members of executive leadership team will reduce their base salaries by 20% for the coming fiscal year.

Flipkart gets interim stay from HC against ₹1,100 crore tax demand

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

Ecommerce company Flipkart on Wednesday received an interim stay from the Karnataka high court on a tax demand of over ₹1,100 crore.

The matter pertains to the assessment years 2016-17 and 2018-19. The amount is required to be deposited within four days. The court also granted the company protection against coercive measures until the next date of hearing- February 24. Flipkart India had filed writ petitions against demand notices issued by the Commissioner of Income Tax-Appeals (CIT(A)) after uploading addition on account of capitalising discount as marketing intangibles and disallowing ESOP cross charges amounting to about Rs 4,500 crore and ₹180 crore, respectively for the two assessment years.



The capitalisation of marketing intangibles and non-deduction of ESOP expenses were two issues that were settled in favour of Flipkart in 2021. "However, the income tax department agitated these issues again for other years and Commissioner Appeals passed an order raising huge tax demand against Flipkart and gave a very limited period of four days to pay it," said Saurrav Sood, Practice Leader-International Tax and Transfer Pricing at SW India.

It was against this demand that Flipkart filed a writ before Karnataka High Court in which it contended that a reasonable time period was not provided to deposit the demand, while it still has an option to file an appeal before the Tribunal, he explained.

He added that it seems such coercive orders often create negative sentiments with the taxpayers and the tax department should be reasonable towards the taxpayers while issuing certain directions.

TEDESCO NAMED BELGIUM COACH

Domenico Tedesco will take over as head coach of Belgium, the country's federation (RBFA) said on Wednesday. The 37-year-old Italy-born Tedesco succeeds Roberto Martinez, who stepped down after Belgium failed to qualify for the knockout stages at the World Cup in Qatar. "His mission is to qualify the Belgian Red Devils for the Euro 2024. The first qualifying match will be played on March 24 in Stockholm against Sweden," the RBFA said.

THE talk about the Jamtha strip only grew louder on the eve of the match even as both skippers tried to play it down. A few former Australian cricketers and experts have termed the surface as 'doctored' and requested the International Cricket Council (ICC) to step in. Despite them firmly believing that they have reasons to make such claims, all talks related to the surface may evaporate into thin air once the opening match of the prestigious Border-Gavaskar Trophy gets underway in the Orange City on Thursday. At least number of tickets sold suggests so.

The Vidarbha Cricket Association (VCA) Cricket Stadium in Jamtha has a capacity of 45,000 and almost 40,000 tickets for the all the days have already been sold by the eve of the match. "It's expected to be almost full as 40,000 tickets have been sold so far," Farokh Dastoor, the VCA chief executive officer, told this daily. "I have never seen such a craze for Test matches in my 22-year stint as a cricket administrator," Dastoor added.

India captain Rohit Sharma, who was born in the city, held it important for the future of the longest format of the game. "It's very good to hear that people are coming in a large number to watch the game. It's good for Test cricket. I hope they continue to come at all the venues not only in Nagpur because a riveting series is on cards and people love to witness a good contest," Rohit told reporters.

What led to talks

It all began with a section of visiting journalists claiming only the centre of the wicket and the length areas outside the left-hander's leg stump on both sides were watered on Tuesday. It was alleged that the preparations were being made to suit the hosts and trouble Australia as the visitors could line-up with as many as six left-hand batters in their top eight. The pictures of the work had gone viral with those flaying it terming the action as 'doctoring the pitch'. Given the noise surrounding the strip, it was quite obvious the captains were asked for their reactions on the subject but both of them preferred to focus on the game instead of thinking much about the wicket.

"I just feel we should focus on cricket which is going to be played for the next five days and not worry too much about the pitch. All 22 cricketers who are going to play are quality cricketers, so not to worry too much about what the pitch is going to be like and how much it is going to be turning or seaming. We should just come out, play good cricket and win the game, as simple as that," affirmed Rohit.

His counterpart, Pat Cummins, admitted that the pitch looked designed for the home team but said, "That's part of the challenge of playing away." Elaborating further, the pacer said, "It looks a little dry for the left handers. With so much traffic coming from the right-handers, yeah potentially might be rough there but we got to embrace that. It gets challenging at times. But our batters relish the chance to solve the problem and quite a few will get that chance this week."

The Aussie captain also explained how important the first innings total is in India. "First innings total is more important here than anywhere else in the world. First innings lead hopefully. You just have to put a good total on the board thinking its going to spin hard in the second innings," he said. No doubt, their intentions are good when they say the focus should be on cricket and challenges which lie ahead. However, even their focus will inadvertently shift to the 22 yards once they come out to bat on the Jamtha track.

IT'S SHOW TIME

Identity of the top-order, and identity of the third spinner, if any, has dominated news apropos team selection ahead of the first Test in Nagpur. A look at the debates...

Gill vs Rahul vs Suryakumar

Shubman Gill has batted like a dream in 2023 but that hasn't translated into a guarantee in terms of figuring in the XI. It's highly likely that one of the three in this battle will sit out. Could Suryakumar Yadav be making a debut? It could well be a possibility if the team wants quick runs on a turner. Rahul, who's the designated second-in-command for this series, is likely to open but there are still some question marks.

Kuldeep vs Axar

If history is anything to go by, Axar Patel is likely to be a shoo-in. His red-ball record in India is ridiculous and his batting is another weapon for him. But Kuldeep Yadav has found some rhythm and his zippy action has previously caused all sorts of problems to the visitors.

Left-handed heavy Australia

All sorts of tedious pitch reports have established that the groundstaff have indulged in some selective watering — not a recent practice — to target the plethora of Australian lefties. Could the visitors be influenced by it? No chance of that happening but it's still one to keep an eye on. How will that side of the pitch down both ends hole up. Will the rough be substantial on Day 1?

India & Australia look to spring surprise

FIROZ MIRZA @ Nagpur

INDIA are known to keep their cards close to their chest when it comes to announcing their playing XI. So it doesn't raise eyebrows when India captain Rohit Sharma, while replying to a query on team combinations for the first Test, merely said 'tomorrow 9 O 'clock' on Wednesday afternoon.

However, what stood out was visiting captain Pat Cummins following the same path. Australia usually announce their team on the eve of the match but this time they preferred to go the other way apparently to keep the opponents guessing. The captains remained tight-lipped but with the situation they are in, both teams, in all probability, could spring surprises once they exchange team sheets ahead of the all-important toss at the VCA Stadium in Jamtha, Nagpur on Thursday morning.

With several spots up for grabs, It will be interesting to see which players will get the final nod on Thursday | AFP

In absence of Rishabh Pant, India are bound to hand Test cap to either KS Bharat or Ishan Kishan, with the former favourite to take the spot. But there can also be some interesting changes as far as the choice of batters (read Shubman Gill or Suryakumar Yadav as there is an indication that KL Rahul wouldn't be dropped) in the middle-order is concerned. "They bring different things to the table for us. Gill, we all know has been in supreme form in the last three to four months. Lot of big hundreds as well. Surya has shown in T20s what he is capable of and what sort of game he can bring to Test cricket as well," Rohit said. "Both are quality options for us and we haven't yet decided who will play among the two guys. (For that) we have to keep all aspects of the game in mind. I will not give you guys anything today (Wednesday)," he said jokingly.

The suspense from the Indian side came as no surprise but Pat Cummins singing from the same hymn sheet was a novelty. "We have contemplated our playing XI and we are announcing it at the time of the toss tomorrow. Everyone is confident," he said.

The dry pitch means Australia are set to break their 35-year-old tradition by giving debut to 22-year-old off-spinner Todd Murphy and giving him a chance to plot India's downfall with senior offie Nathan Lyon. He seems to have overtaken left-armer Ashton Agar, who partnered Lyon in Australia's previous Test against South Africa in January. The Aussies last fielded two frontline off-spinners in 1988 when Tim May and Peter Taylor played together against hosts Pakistan.

As was reported by this daily, the visitors are also set to replace recovering Cameron Green with Peter Handscomb, overlooking Matt Renshaw given the number of left-hand batters they already have in the team and threat posed by India left-arm spinners on the surface tailor-made for the hosts. Handscomb also did some shadow practice adjacent to the strip on Wednesday giving a peek into team management's strategy.

Constant hunger to improve behind Renuka's journey to top

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN Pawan Sen came across Renuka Singh Thakur at the Himachal Pradesh Cricket Academy more than a decade ago, she was among a group of 20 or so teenagers at the first-of-its-kind residential place. He told them that one day some of them would go on and play for India. The reaction, he recalls, from the players was laughter.

Cut to the present, as many as three cricketers from the academy have represented the country; Sushma Verma, Harleen Deol and Renuka. All three were a part of the squad during the recent tri-series in South Africa last month. "She (Renuka) comes from a very remote area (Rohru). Back then, for them, to represent the state was a big thing. Cricket did not have as much craze as other sports in Himachal. Then Sushma's debut happened, then Harleen and Renuka. The players got a lot of motivation and the interest has gone up drastically," Sen told this daily.

Renuka might have been the last to play for India among the three, but she has made rapid strides in the last 12 months. That she was the ICC Emerging Player of the Year for 2022 tells enough. At a time when Shikha Pandey seemed to be out of favour and Jhulan Goswami was on her swansong, the pacer stole the show. She was the leading wicket-taker in the Commonwealth Games, but numbers aside, the way she rattled every top-order that came up against India is what made her stand out.

Pacer Renuka's success has inspired many to take up the sport in Himachal

ICC WOMEN'S T20 WORLD CUP SOUTH AFRICA 2023 — 1 DAY TO GO

The 27-year-old has built a reputation for herself to deliver early breakthroughs. To an extent where every time she opens the bowling, she is expected to do that. But sometimes, especially when the pitches haven't aided her as much as it did in England, she has struggled. However, she has realised that and tried to improve her variations. "We worked a lot on yorkers, line and length control, which has improved since her debut. Being a medium-pacer who doesn't operate at a high speed, variations are key. She speaks before every match and I just tell her to stick to basics when there is not much help from the surface. You can't change things in one day and need time for that. She has also realised that," tells Sen.

It is this constant search for improvement and to be better that has brought Renuka this far. Since her debut no pacer from a full member has taken more T20I wickets. Sen remembers the conversation after the group stage CWG match against Australia. The pacer took 4/22 with the new ball but Grace Harris changed the game after. "She told me 'if I had taken one more wicket, we could have won.' She is never satisfied. Keeps telling 'aur better karna hai' (have to do better). Now, watching the Australian lower-order dominate with the bat, she has developed interest in batting also. She is keen to improve her batting so that she can contribute."

Also, after every match, she calls Sen to ask about what she did well on a particular delivery or what did not work for her in a spell. "I have to keep track of the schedule and watch every ball of the match irrespective of the time zone as later in the day or the next day, she will be asking me for specific feedback with a lot of questions," says Sen.

Mayank slams ton to lift Karnataka

AGENCIES

SKIPPER Mayank Agarwal scored an unbeaten century as he rescued Karnataka from a poor start to guide the hosts to 229 for five against Saurashtra in the Ranji Trophy semi-final in Bengaluru on Wednesday.

Sent in to bat, Karnataka were in some trouble, losing half their side for 112 in 40.3 overs. But opener Agarwal (110 n.o) held one end together and in the company of wicket-keeper Srinivas Sharath (58 n.o) steadied the innings with an unbeaten 117-run partnership for the sixth wicket. Karnataka scored their runs off 87 overs before the umpires called stumps to the opening day's proceedings.

Mayank Agarwal celebrates his century | PTI

Agarwal's patient knock came off 246 balls during which he struck 11 boundaries and a six, while Sharath faced 143 deliveries during his unconquered knock and hit four fours in the process.

In the other semifinal, Bengal's crisis man Anustup Majumdar and young Sudip Gharami slammed centuries under pressure but ceded ground to reigning champions Madhya Pradesh. Majumdar (120) and Gharami (112) put together 241 runs from 414 balls.

Brief Scores: Karnataka: 229 for 5 in 87 ovs (Agarwal 110 batting, Sharath 58 batting; Kushang 2/64) vs Saurashtra; Bengal 307/4; 87 ovs (Majumdar 120, Gharami 112; Agarwal 2/21) vs Madhya Pradesh.

James breaks all-time points-scoring record

AFP @ Los Angeles

LEBRON JAMES finally eclipsed Kareem Abdul-Jabbar as the most prolific scorer in NBA history on Tuesday, breaking a 39-year record that many throughout basketball believed would never be beaten.

The Los Angeles Lakers star, playing in his 20th season in the NBA, passed Abdul-Jabbar's total of 38,387 points after nailing a 21-foot shot late in the third quarter against the Oklahoma City Thunder. James flung his arms aloft in relief as the Crypto.com Arena erupted in wild celebration at his new record of 38,388 points. Abdul-Jabbar, sitting courtside, was among the first to congratulate James as play was interrupted to salute an iconic moment in NBA history. "To be able to be in the presence of a legend and great as Kareem it means so much to me," James told the crowd before thanking family, friends and fans. "Everybody that's ever been part of this run with me these last 20 years, I just want to say I thank you so much because I wouldn't be me without all your help."

Kobe Bryant	33,643
Michael Jordan	32,292

James signed off his on-court address with an F-bomb, seemingly lost for words after one of the signature moments of his glittering career.

James, who eventually finished the game with 38 points on the night for a career haul of 38,390, said afterwards he expected to continue playing for at least two more seasons.

"I know I can play a couple more years — it's all about my mind," James said. "If my mind is still into it, if I'm still motivated to go out and try to compete for championships, I feel like I can still do that."

Toll from world's deadliest quake in over a decade passes 11,700; hopes of finding survivors fade as rescue works enter fourth day | Erdogan acknowledges shortcomings in his government's response, says not possible to be ready for a disaster like this

THOUSANDS LIKELY STILL BENEATH RUBBLE

India's National Disaster Response Force (NDRF) personnel search for survivors in Turkiye on Wednesday | PTI

GAZIANTEP

SEARCHERS were still pulling survivors on Wednesday from the rubble of the earthquake that killed over 11,700 people in Turkiye and Syria, even as rescue chances dwindled and victims clamoured for help.

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan visited one of the hardest-hit spots, quake epicentre Kahramanmaras, and pushed back at criticism his government's response has been slow.

Erdogan acknowledged "shortcomings" in his government's response. "Of course, there are shortcomings. The conditions are clear to see. It's not possible to be ready for a disaster like this," Erdogan said in his most direct response yet to accusations that his government failed to supply a sufficient number of rescuers and aid.

For two days and nights since the 7.8 magnitude quake, thousands of searchers have worked in freezing temperatures to find those still alive under flattened buildings on either side of the border.

Unstable piles of metal and concrete made the search efforts perilous, while freezing temperatures made them ever more urgent, as worries grew about how long trapped survivors could last in the cold. Snow swirled around rescuers in parts of Turkiye.

Emergency workers on Wednesday saved some children found under a collapsed building in the hard-hit Turkish province of Hatay, where whole stretches of towns have been levelled. "All of a sudden we heard voices and thanks to the excavator... immediately we heard the voices of three people at the same time," said rescuer Alperen Cetinkaya.

"We are expecting more of them... the chances of getting people out of here alive are very high," he added.

Officials and medics said 8,574 people had died in Turkiye and 2,662 in Syria, bringing the total to 11,236 — but that could yet double if the worst fears of experts are realised.

Due to the scale of the damage and the lack of help coming to certain areas, survivors said they felt alone in responding to the disaster. AFP

THE RACE AGAINST TIME

Time was running out for survivors buried in the rubble of the earthquake in Turkiye and Syria, as search efforts near the crucial 72-hour mark, a rescue response expert said on Wednesday

90%
of earthquake survivors are rescued within the first three days, said Ilan Kelman, a professor of disasters and health at University College London

Sanctions complicate delivery of aid to Syria

BEIRUT

EVEN before Monday's devastating earthquake, getting aid to all parts of war-battered Syria was fraught with daunting political and logistical challenges.

Damage to roads and other infrastructure in southern Turkey has stalled aid from reaching northern Syria, an area already devastated by 12 years of conflict.

Meanwhile, the government of Bashar Assad in Damascus is still an outcast in much of the international community, sanctioned by the US and European countries, which are reluctant to route aid directly through the government.

American and EU officials have made clear the quake won't change that.Emergency workers say delays could cost lives, as local rescue crews struggle to pull families and children from the rubble and find housing for survivors amid brutal winter weather.

A key issue complicating the dispersal of aid is "the war and the way the aid response is split between rebel areas and Damascus," said Aron Lund, a fellow with New York-based think tank Century International who researches Syria. AP

Bodies line up streets in Turkiye waiting to be picked up by funeral vans

GAZIANTEP

GREEN metal coffins were lined up 10 at a time under a shelter at Gaziantep's main cemetery on Wednesday for an imam to bless victims of Turkiye's devastating earthquake before their hurried burial.

Residents in Gaziantep lack almost everything. Shops are closed, there is no heat because gas lines have been cut to avoid explosions, and finding petrol is tough.

Only bakeries remain open, drawing long queues.

Some of the worst damage in Gaziantep's eponymous province took place in the most remote districts, where hundreds of buildings have collapsed.

People cry next to their collapsed building in the southeastern Turkish city of Kahramanmaras | AFP

In the Turkish city of Malatya, bodies were placed side by side on the ground, covered in blankets, while rescuers waited for funeral vehicles to pick them up, according to former journalist Ozel Pikal who saw eight bodies pulled from the ruins of the building. Pikal, who took part in the rescue efforts, said he believes at least some of the victims may have frozen to death as temperatures dipped to minus 6 degrees Celsius.

"Today isn't a pleasant day, because as of today there is no hope left in Malatya," Pikal told the AP by telephone. 'No one is coming out alive from the rubble." Pikal said a hotel building collapsed in the city.

There was a shortage of rescuers in the area he was in, and the cold hampered rescue efforts by volunteers, he said. Road closures and damage in the region have also impeded mobility and access.

SL police quiz Gota over cash stashes found at residence

COLOMBO

Sri Lanka's former president Gotabaya Rajapaksa has been questioned by police over the discovery of a large amount of cash in his office-cum-residence when he fled the country for safety as thousands of protesters stormed the place in July last year.

"A three-hour long statement was recorded on Monday at his private house as directed by the court," police spokesman Nihal Thalduwa told reporters.

The protesters who occupied the President's House in the capital in July last year said that they had discovered over 17 million rupees in cash and handed over the money to the Colombo Fort police. The police reported the matter to the court, which ordered a statement to be recorded from Rajapaksa on the discovery of cash.

Rajapaksa and his family faced multiple accusations of wrongdoing between 2015-2019.After he became president in November 2019, one such case, alleged misuse of public funds to erect a monument for his parents, was dropped based on the presidential immunity.

Meanwhile, Lanka's president said on Wednesday the island nation will remain bankrupt for at least three more years. Ranil Wickremesinghe took office last year at the peak of national unrest sparked by months of food, fuel and medicine shortages.

He has since pushed through tax hikes and negotiated with international creditors after a default on Sri Lanka's foreign debt to clear the way for a sorely needed IMF bailout.

"If we continue according to this plan, we can rise out of bankruptcy by 2026," he said during an address to parliament urging support for economic reforms.

Swedish police blocks Koran burning protest

Stockholm: Swedish police on Wednesday denied permission for a protest involving the burning of a Koran, following a January demonstration that angered Turkey, putting Sweden's pending NATO application on hold. Protests are rarely banned by Swedish police as they are considered as a right under freedom of assembly, but police cited the risk that the protest could provoke terror attacks.

MH17 investigation: Putin likely approved supply of missile

MOSCOW

THERE are "strong indications" that Russian President Vladimir Putin personally approved the supply of the missile that shot down Malaysia Airlines flight MH17 in 2014, international investigators said Wednesday.

But the investigators said they were halting their eight-year probe, since Putin has immunity as head of state and there is not enough concrete evidence to prosecute him or other suspects.

The announcement comes less than three months after a Dutch court convicted two Russians and a Ukrainian in absentia over the downing of MH17.

"There are strong indications that a decision was made at presidential level, by President Putin, to supply the DPR (Donetsk People's Republic) with the Buk TELAR" missile system, Dutch prosecutor Digna van Boetzelaer told a news conference. AFP

DAY'S DIARY

Take Off

On Feb 9, 1969, Boeing 747-100 jumbo took flight. The first 747 was two-and-a-half times bigger than the largest jets then in service.

FIRST FLIGHT

Named the 'City of Everett' after Washington city, the first 747 was piloted by Jack Waddell. It took flight at 164 mph, circled the airport at 2,000 feet.

HOW IT WAS MADE

To build the biggest jet, Boeing built a new factory. The cargo load in the front gave the 747 its distinctive profile with a hump at the front.

DESIGN OF 747

The 747 was built on the high-bypass engine tech that had been developed for the C-5A gigantic military transport plane.

Having shifted base to Goa, actor Sameera Reddy– who was in B'luru – can't imagine going back to the stress that the world of glamour brings along. She shares why she's embraced social media now to talk about hush-hush issues

MONIKA MONALISA

MANY will remember Bollywood actor Sameera Reddy for her girl-next-door look in singer Pankaj Udhas's classic song Ahista. Or even her glamorous role in Ram Gopal Varma's horror Hindi anthology Darna Mana Hai. There's another avatar she's now trying, a 'raw' one, on social media. Reddy, who was in the city to support her friends and celebrity photographer Amrita Samant, calls it her 'second innings' where she uses social media to 'be herself'.

Faulting her greys, speaking about skin issues, her postpartum depression and post-delivery weight issue...Reddy finds social media a safe space. "I see social media as a community and not the number of followers. I look at it as a healthy space to be myself. It's not just about being raw. I am open to show a life that is not perfect," says Reddy. Since she personally handles her account without involving any agency unlike many celebrities, she feels more connected to people than she was 10 years ago. "Sometimes I counsel women who are going through tough times, I take time to reply to them," she adds.

Speaking about things that are hardly spoken about also came from her personal experience of dealing with postpartum depression for two years. "I was not prepared for it because not one person had told me that my hormones will go for a toss. Everybody was so focused on how beautiful things were going to be when the baby came out. And there I was...feeling the blues," she says, adding, "If one person had told me it was ok to be going through what I was, I would have handled it better. So this is, in a way, my second innings, where I speak my mind and see if I can help other women in some way," says Reddy, who turned to homeopathy and therapy to deal with postpartum depression.

Having once lived in Mumbai where she worked in tinseltown, Reddy currently lives in Goa, and swears that she does not miss the world of glitz and glamour. "I am not missing the industry because it is a lot of pressure and stress. If I go back now, it has to be on my terms. No mingling at parties to get work, no trying to get into the perfect crowd or having to butter the right people. The whole thing of having to be at the right place, right time is just the most stressful part of acting," says Reddy, adding her children find it funny when people refer to her by her character names not having seen any of her works yet.

In the city for only a few hours before flying back to Goa, Reddy revealed that namma ooru was the place where her husband Akshai Varde met and fell in love. "I was here one New Year's eve on work. He was in town and I desperately asked him out on a date. It's 12 years since," she says before dashing off to the airport.

FIT BIT

TADASANA PALMS FACING FORWARD
(MOUNTAIN POSE PALMS FACING FORWARD)

This variation involves a shoulder rotation, which expands the chest. Traditionally, this arm and shoulder pose is practised as part of Ashtanga/ Vinyasa Yoga. Tadasana is the base of all standing poses, and mastering it will help achieve all other standing poses.

STEPS

- Stand at the centre of the mat keeping the feet a few inches apart.
- Relax the shoulders and neck, keep the body completely loose.
- Now, place your feet firm on the floor and stand extending the spine while taking the shoulders behind.
- Take a few breaths and slowly breathe deep to build the prana flow for the sequence.
- Stretch the arms to your sides, opening the palms and fingers.
- Tuck the belly in and focus on doing this throughout the Dragon Flow building core strength.
- Once you finish six rounds of breathing, you can begin the Flow Sequence.
- Relax and stand with your arms straight by the sides of your

BENEFITS

- It draws awareness to the external shoulder rotation.
- Also draws awareness to the shoulder joints and facilitates a deeper heart opening.
- Makes deeper backbends more accessible, and helps improve overall posture.
- More helpful to those who work on laptops, computers, or phones.
- Helps stretch the clavicular muscles enough to correct the posture.
- This asana can be included in Desk Yoga.
- It can be beneficial to teenagers, especially teenage girls, as with the development of breasts, many girls tend to start hunching. This corrects the posture and boosts their confidence.
- Strengthens the external rotator cuffs.
- Reduces the chances of injury during a weight-training session.
- Also increases performance for overhead lifting.
- Beneficial to weight-lifters, and swimmers or athletes who play sports like tennis, badminton, golf, etc.
- This can be a great foundation practice.

LIMITATIONS

People suffering from headaches, low blood pressure and insomnia are advised to do this asana after consulting a yoga instructor.

This asana should be avoided during pregnancy.

Don't put too much pressure on the knees as it may cause pain.

THYROID AND YOU

HERE ARE FIVE FOOD ITEMS THAT CAN HELP YOU WITH THYROID MANAGEMENT

EDWINA RAJ

THE thyroid is a butterfly-shaped gland that is located on the front of our neck below the Adam's apple. This gland produces hormones that help in regulating our metabolism, growth, and developmental activities. When there is an imbalance in the thyroid hormones, it leads to several problems, such as altered metabolism, weight gain, bone and hair loss, greater risk of developing heart disease, hormonal imbalance, celiac disease, and diabetes. This is usually referred to as hypothyroidism, where our thyroid is not producing enough hormones, leading to rapid weight gain.

SYMPTOMS

- Fatigue
- Constipation
- Puffy face and dry skin
- Increased cholesterol levels
- Stiffness or pain in joints
- Depression
- impaired memory

Hypothyroidism can affect any age group, which includes infants and children. Patients suffering from hypothyroidism often find it difficult to lose weight. Focus on mindful eating by controlling portion sizes and balancing the key nutrients through different ranges of food groups. Include foods rich in iodine, selenium, zinc, calcium, and protein.

A note of caution

The road to recovery from hypothyroidism is normal. As long as the patient follows the medication regime, there should not be any complication. However, leaving it untreated can drastically affect your body, such as elevated cholesterol levels, subsequent heart disease, infertility, and osteoporosis. Several studies have also shown that it can lead to the onset of other autoimmune diseases like diabetes, arthritis, and anaemia. Therefore, early diagnosis and proper management of the condition can help avoid further complications.

Along with a healthy diet, undertaking physical activities like yoga that stimulate and support endocrine system and boost the supply of oxygen in the body will help the thyroid tremendously. Avoiding alcoholism and smoking can also help patients improve their thyroid performance.

Foods mentioned above should be reviewed by a clinical dietitian and endocrinologist.

It is advisable to make a note on foods that interfere in the absorption of thyroid medication and hence to be avoided immediately in the morning and spaced later during the day such as coffee, soya, papaya, grapefruit, and supplements that contain fiber and calcium too. Read the food labels of packed foods and include iodised salt, sprouted millets, and avoid using non-iodised pink salt to maintain your thyroid health. Nutritional supplements that contain chromium picolinate used for weight loss impairs absorption of thyroid medicine. Limit foods which are high in goitrogens (cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, kale, pearl millet, cassava, peanut oil, etc) but not completely as they are sources of essential nutrients.

(The writer is head - clinical nutrition dietetics, Aster CMI Hospital)

HERE ARE FIVE FOODS YOU CAN BENEFIT FROM

SEEDS AND NUTS

Brazil nuts are an excellent source of selenium and zinc that help in better functioning of the thyroid. Additionally, chia and pumpkin seeds are rich sources of zinc and make a great snacking option. Binge eating which is common among such patients can be controlled through oilseeds and nuts which are also a viable option and helps in weight loss.

BEANS AND LEGUMES

These are rich sources of protein and can improve your metabolism, provide a sense of satiety (feeling of fullness) and prevent you from gaining weight.

EGGS

Thyroid patients looking to lose weight can consume egg yolks and the whites as it will enrich their bodies with zinc, selenium, and protein, which are essential for weight loss and benefits with stronger bones.

VEGETABLES

Consuming vegetables such as tomatoes and bell peppers can support thyroid patients in weight loss as they are rich in vitamin C, fibre, and antioxidants.

WATER AND NON-CAFFEINATED BEVERAGES

Increasing your water intake can help you with bloating issues, eliminates toxins from the body, keeps your hormones in check and boosts your weight loss process.

NUGGETS

Cancer projections show a worrisome figure: Experts

The cancer projections for 2021-2025 show a worrisome figure and are looking at an increase to 29.8 million in 2025 from 26.7 million in 2021, as per the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) report, with men contributing to 14.7 million Years of Life Lost (YLLs) and women up to 13.6 million YLLs in India, said Dr Sharat Damodar, chairman, Oncology Collegium, Narayana Health on World Cancer Day. World Cancer Day is observed annually on February 4 to raise awareness on cancer and to encourage its prevention, detection and treatment. "People above the age of 40 need to be vigilant towards symptoms of prolonged fever, weight loss, abnormal swellings or any bleeding symptoms and get themselves screened immediately," said Damodar, who is also a senior consultant and head of Adult Hematology. –IANS

'RUPAYI WILL BE MY FIRST ATTEMPT AT COMEDY'

... says Krishi Thapanda about her upcoming film, Rupayi, which discusses the importance of money and relationships in a humorous way

A SHARADHAA

MONEY is a basic need, but the value of life is defined by love and relationship," Krishi Thapanda gives a gyan about the purpose of money, and further opines, "Schools teach us that air, water, and shelter are the three essentials. Money is something that should be added to this list as it aids our survival."

The actor talks extensively about the importance of money as it has close reference to her upcoming film, Rupayi, which is slated to release this week. Krishi who was last seen in Lanke is back on the silver screen almost after a year.

Talking to CE on the sidelines of the film hitting the theatres, Krishi says Rupayi is one among the backlog of films, which began during the pandemic and finally seeing the light of day. "The film is all about money, and how these notes change people's perspectives about life," says Krishi, adding, "However, to talk about the genre, Rupayi is a fun, comedy subject, and my first attempt in the genre. That's one of the reasons I agreed to do this film. Having been a part of mostly love stories, this is an out-and-out entertainer filled with humour, felt like a refreshing change," she says.

A still from the film

According to Krishi, money is a serious matter, and the film shows how money is effective in somebody's life, but in a comical manner. "Vijay Jagadal, who is the director also plays the lead, and I'm paired alongside him. Though it is a comical film, I have a subtle role to play, and I portray someone who thinks money is not important, and values relationships," she says.

Rupayi produced by Manjunath M and Harish BK, also stars Chandana Raghavendra, Mythri Jagadeesh, Ram Chandan, Pramod Shetty, Anil Kumar, and Krithi Gowda in pivotal roles. The film has music by Anand Rajavikram and cinematography by RD Nagarjun.

Apart from this project, Krishi has Gana, starring Prajwal Devaraj, and an untitled project with actor Kishore. Both projects are getting ready for release.

Naresh Kumar's South Indian Hero gets a release date

The film, which is said to be based on the film industry will hit theatres on February 24

CE FEATURES

DIRECTOR Naresh Kumar, the director of films like First Rank Raju, and Raju Kannada Medium is ready with his third outing. Titled South Indian hero, the film marks the silver screen debut of teleserial actor, Sarthak and is set to hit the theatres on February 24.

Prior to the release, the film's trailer was launched by Real Star Upendra recently. Naresh in his previous interview with CE had mentioned that South Indian Hero is based on the South Indian film industry, and this film will bring in the shades of a lot of South Indian heroes, " The film's protagonist, Logic Laxman Rao played by Sarthak is a physics teacher, who has no connection with cinema. What takes him to enter the film industry, and what difficulties he faces after his arrival, is the crux of the film," Naresh explains in brief about South Indian Hero. The film stars Kasshima Rafi (Kasthuri Mahal), and Urvashi as the female leads, while Yogaraj Bhat, Vijay Chendoor, Ashwin Palakki, Amith, Ashwin Kodange, and Chitkala Biradar play important roles.

Backed by Shilpa LS under Riyanshi Films, South Indian Hero has story, screenplay, and dialogues by Naresh Kumar. The film has cinematography by Praveen and Rajashekar and music by Harsha Vardhan Raj and Anil CJ.

'Working with Upendra is a lifetime opportunity'

CE FEATURES

ANUP Revanna, who forayed into the film industry with Lakshmana, has now completed shooting for his fourth project, Hide & Seek. A poster of the film was unveiled on his birthday.

The film written and directed by Puneeth Nagaraju stars Dhanya Ramkumar as the female lead, and the makers are eyeing an April release. But he admits that it is Kabzaa, that he is really excited about. "Associating with a star like Upendra, and sharing screen space with him is a different kind of learning. I feel fortunate to have worked with him, and be part of R Chandru's directorial. He is one of the best directors and was great to discuss films with him on the sets," says Anup, adding, "For an actor like me, who is trying to establish himself as a solo lead character, it is always good to get the experience of working with stars like Upendra and Sudeep. Sharing the screen with them will bring us a wider recognition and their presence helps us to elevate our performances."

Kabzaa has Anup playing the right hand to Upendra, and his name is Target. "The role and the character's name are what first attracted me to take up this character. Moreover, I was particular to take up this role, as I will be getting screen time with Uppi sir, and it is a lifetime opportunity, which could not be missed, " he says.

Anup Revanna, who is looking forward to the release of these two films plans to take a break before signing his next project. "Coming from a political background, I need to take time to support my father, who is contesting in the elections, and my focus will be there. I will take up my next project, sometime after May, and after we are done with the Karnataka elections," he says.

Salman Khan wraps shoot for Kisi Ka Bhai Kisi Ki Jaan

CE FEATURES

SALMAN Khan has wrapped the shooting of his upcoming film Kisi Ka Bhai Kisi Ki Jaan. The actor made the announcement on Instagram with a photo of himself wearing white, with a pink background.

The actor and crew seem to have reshot certain portions of the film recently, as he had shared in the first week of December that the shoot was completed then.

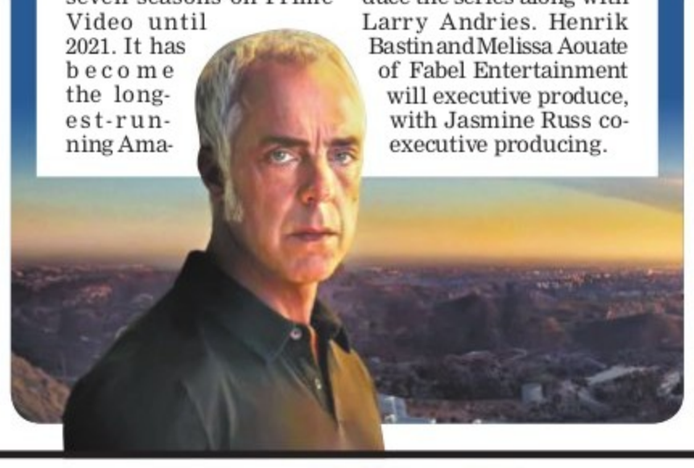
The film, directed by Farhad Samji, also stars Pooja Hegde, Shehnaaz Gill, Bhagyashree and Bhumika Chawla among others. The core plot of the film is said to be based on the Tamil film Veeram, which starred Ajith Kumar in the lead role. Salman was last seen in a fun cameo in Shah Rukh Khan's comeback vehicle Pathaan. Apart from KKBKKJ, he also has Tiger 3 with Katrina Kaif on the cards.

Bosch spinoffs in the works at Amazon Studios

CE FEATURES

TWO new series set within the Bosch universe are being developed at Amazon Studios. The shows are being developed based on the Michael Connelly characters Jerry Edgar and Renee Ballard. Jamie Hector played the role of Jerry Edgar throughout the seven-season run, while Renee Ballard has never been featured onscreen before. Jamie Hector will most probably be reprising his role as Jerry in the new show. The original Bosch series ran for seven seasons on Prime Video until 2021. It has become the longest-running Amazon series to date, and therefore the move to create spinoffs is not unexpected. Bosch: Legacy, the spinoff series, debuted on Amazon Freevee in 2022 and saw Titus Welliver return as Harry Bosch. The second season of the series is scheduled to release in the fall of 2023.

In the Jerry Edgar show, he will be seen on an undercover FBI mission in Little Haiti, Miami. In Miami, he is forced to balance his new life while being chased by his mysterious past in the gritty underbelly of the city. Michael Connelly will executive produce the series along with Larry Andries. Henrik Bastin and Melissa Aouate of Fabel Entertainment will executive produce, with Jasmine Russ co-executive producing.



CE FEATURES

RAMENAHALLI Jagannatha, quit his job as a professor, to pursue his passion for films. Having worked with Rockline Production's Adhi Lakshmi Purana directed by Priya, he is now geared up for his first directorial outing, Hondisi Bareyiri, which is slated to release this week.

"I wanted to be a lyricist as I have penned a lot of poems during my college days, which even got published in some vernacular dailies. My lyrical writing in turn pushed me to write a story, and that's how Hondisi Bareyiri came about," says Ramenahalli, who has penned 6 songs out of 8 for his first film. "Hondisi Bareyari traces the journey of 5 friends and stories unfolding through 12 years of life from college to after marriage," says the director.

"I have a penchant for lighthearted scripts, and enjoy watching films like Gaalipata, Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara, Dil Chata Hai. I wanted to direct a film on those lines, and Hondisi Bareyiri clearly fits the bill," says Ramnenahalli, who has placed the film against an Engineering backdrop. Interestingly, this is a rare multistarrer, which is narrated through 8 different characters, and the director has managed to bring in famous actors, who are known for playing solo leads like Praveen Tej, Naveen Shankar, Shri Mahadev, Aishani Shetty, Bhavana Rao, Samyuktha Hornad, Archana Jois and Anirudh Acharya. "I had a unique way of approaching these actors, and it is mainly the story that has brought them together. Every character appearing at different stages of the film represents varied emotions, which are closely related and relevant."

Hondisi Bareyiri is made under Sunday Cinemas banner and has music scored by Joe Costa. Shanthi Sagar has handled the cinematography.

'HONDISI BAREYARI IS A RARE MULTISTARRER'
